FAMILY HISTORY.

These histories were collected and arranged by Mrs. George Elton Harris. Notes were taken from hundreds of letters she received over a period of years. Papers and books which she studied in geneological libraries furnished important data. The family histories are quite complete to about the year 1946; after that date, the data is scattered and no effort was made to gather more detailed information.

The age of electricity, automobiles, radios, airplanes and atom bombs began in the first half of the nineteenth century. The generations alive at that time played their full part in those historic times. By 1930 almost every adult family group mentioned owned an automobile and several radios. None owned an airplane by 1947.

* * * * *

The data was collected for my children who seldom saw their relatives.

Fifty copies were mimeographed and sent to relatives. Copies were also sent to Boston, Massachusetts Public Library; Chicago, Illinois Public Library; St. Louis, Missouri Public Library; and the San Francisco, California Public Library.

11 Peter 3:8

LETTER IN 1939 FROM CARRIE OVER TO ESTELLE BROWN

Our first ancestor, concerning whom I have any information is on my mother's side of the family. An Englishman by the name of Stout married a Holland woman whose first husband (a Hollander) had been killed by the Indians. She had been left for dead, but came to and crawled out into the trail, as she heard other Indians coming in order for them to finish her and relieve her of her sufferings. The younger one lifted his tomahawk with that intention, but the older one would not allow it and she was carried to the government house and the ransom secured. Later on she married Mr. Stout. Your mother and I belong to the ninth generation from them--four men and five women. If my mother knew the names, so little was ever said about them that we children failed to learn the names. The last time I ever saw my mother alive she told me we had one great-great-grandfather in the Revolution, and two great-grandfathers. But I was in an absent-minded state just then and it did not occur to me to ask for the names. It is strange she never mentioned them to Aunt Winnie with whom she lived so many years. And stranger still I did not ask the names, if she knew, as perhaps she did. Naturally she supposed I was not interested. I've always regretted it.

Grandfather Baxter was Albert Gallatin Baxter, and his wife was Polly Salter before her marriage. Sally Ann was their oldest child (15 years Mother's senior). There were nine children, but the only brothers whose names I knew were George and Elijah. Elijah died in Butte, Montana, at the age of 65. I cannot give date. He had no children. Aunt Sarah (as we called her) married William Hunter. They were the parents of 8 children, three only living to grow up. They were Albert Milton, Clara who married Nelson King. There was a family but I cannot give much information concerning them. If it is wished for, write to A. M. Hunter at Glendora, California. Milton married Cora Hicks, an English woman. There were two children, Pearl and William. (William is living, had a son. Pearl died some years ago--she married Charley Lewis. They had 2 children, Wyatt and Corabelle.) Aunt Sarah's other child was Ella. She married Dan Bracey. I believe it was 4 children she had--write to her in care of Milton. They are living together since both have been widowed. (This seems rather mixed up. The three Hunter children were Milton, Clara, and Ella.) These are the only relatives on the Baxter side I know anything about, except that Grandfather Baxter was born in New York State and Grandmother in New Jersey, and somewhere along the line we had ancestors who were members of the church at Hopewell, New Jersey. (Guess I mean charter members.) That was the first Baptist church in the United States I think, or at any rate the first in New Jersey. And also the original Holland couple came to the U. S. (not then "U. S.") with the first boat load from Holland 1623 if we have the date right. (Ed.--It was the first ship load of Hollanders to New Jersey.)

Grandfather Baxter lived to be 82, Grandmere 77--she died of pneumonia in Cordova, Illinois and is buried there; he died in Fort Collins, Colorado and is buried there.

My great-grandfather was "Sir Edward Elton" of somewhere in England. Quite possibly Elton Hall may have been their home. He left England, and his inheritance of wealth and title, in order to come to the Colonies and fight for freedom. The civil authorities heard of his intention to come, and forbade his leaving England. In order to slip away he had himself put in a barrel of scrap iron, with someone on board knowing about it, of course, and when safely underway, he was rescued from his prison. But again it is strange my people never told us much more about him, or that we did not ask. He came sometime during the Revolution. I suppose their thought was that it matters much more what we are, than who our ancestors may have been--true of course, but the information would be of interest. I do not know about who he married or about any family except my grandfather, and his name seems to have slipped from me. He married Emmeline Churchill, an English woman. My father and Aunt Julia were the only children. Aunt Julia died of a cancer at the roots of the tongue in Rock Island, Illinois, somewhere in the later 1870's. I cannot give the date, but I was a little child. And I do not know the date of her birth, or whether older or younger than Father. She married William Lundy, and had one son, John, who was killed in a street-car accident in Rock Island, in 1898 I think, or near that date. We have no other relatives on Father's side except cousins of his. He used to say he had a "10 acre lot of them in Connecticut." There was one family, an uncle of his, Cyrus Churchill, in Rock Island. But I suppose they will hardly be of sufficient interest to trace. They were fine people--I know them well. The name was Churchill, and they lived in Rock Island.

OUR immediate family, Edwin Nathan Elton, married Mary Irene Baxter, in Edgington, Illinois, in 1862. Father was born in 1842 May 22, in New Berlin, Connecticut. Mother in 1843 in New York State. He was a minister, securing his special training, such as he was able to get, in Shurtleff College, in Upper Alton, Illinois. He served for three years in the Civil War, 126 Illinois Infantry, Captain C. B. Miller.

- 1843

The children were Mary Lillian, born April 18, 1865; Emma, who died at 16 months; (I do not know dates) Carrie Ida, born February 26, 1871; Edwina Julia, born January 19, 1874; Lottie May, born March 13, 1876; and Edwin Churchill, born December 14, 1878. Lottie died in September 1892 in Salubria, Idaho, from typhoid fever. You know the Harris children, and that your mother married Blair Harris in Ft. Collins December 25, 1883 (1885 is correct from other notes). I married Urban Meade Over, in Salubria, March 24, 1896. We had three sons, Robert Elton, born November 22, 1896 (a premature birth). We almost lost him at the time he should have been born. Ivan Iret was born February 20, 1901. (The name "Iret" is Mr. Frank Smith's name of Denver, head of the freight department of the U. P. system, and Mrs. Smith of national fame in our Baptist circles. They were special friends of mine while in Colorado.) Our youngest is Dale Churchill, born December 14, 1903. (You will notice that is my brother's birthday. It is also "Uncle Churchill's" birthday, where they both got the name.) Robert Elton married Freda Jeffrey in McMinnville, Oregon in September 1920. One son was born, Robert Eugeno, September 4, 1924. Freda divorced Robert in 1929 (rightly). He has recently remarried, one Thelma Dunning, in Hollandale, Minnesota. There is a daughter, Mary Yvonne, born December 23, 1937.

Ivan is single. Dale married Edna Gladys Christian, in 1928 in Riverside, California. There is one child, James Christian, born May 29, 1936.

Aunt Winnie's children are Annie Elizabeth, January 19, 1904; Warren Lorenzo, May ? 1906; Lewis Edwin, November 1908; and Howard Sidney, April 1911. Oh yes, Aunt Winnie married Ira Lorenzo Root, in Salubria, in May 1901.

Edwin has two daughters. I will write him and ask for more definite information than I can give at present. Names would be my limit now, and the second, Eunice, deserves more than that. She is a "cum laude" graduate of Leland Stanford University, now doing an interesting work. When I get the information I'll send it on.

As you know, Annie is a teacher in Shanghai University, China, and is also Mission Treasurer this term, her second.

This seems to be all the information I can give concerning our people, except dates of my parents' deaths, which I can see I have overlooked. Father died in Salubria, October 29, 1899 and Mother on November 9, 1903. Also his pastorates, Oquawka, Ill., 4 years, Cordova, Ill., 10 years, Fort Collins, Colo., 6 years, and Salubria, Idaho, 9 years.

This is somewhat jumbled and badly typed. I seldom use my little old Corona and just now the cable has slipped. I'll be glad to answer any other questions which may be asked--if I can.

U. M. Over was a dentist--the home was in Cambridge, Idaho. After retiring they moved to Woiser, Idaho about 1946. U. M. Over's son, Robert Elton, served in World War I 15 months in France in the Army. He enlisted from Cambridge, Idaho. Robert Eugene, from California, served in World War II in the Navy.

Dale Churchill Over's son James, has the handmade oak rocker put together with oak pins, which belonged to Mrs. U. M. Over's great-grandmother. 1947 Ivan Over was one of Montgomery Ward's company service supervisors--all electrical equipment. The company sent him to supervise their work in Southern California in 1948.

Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Over moved to Pasadena, California in April, 1948 to be near their son Dale. Mrs. U. M. Over, Carrie Elton, died February 20, 1950 in Pasadena, California due to heart trouble. Carrie attended ~~Moody Bible Institute in Chicago~~ ^{Baptist Missionary Training School, Calif. grad 1893} she wanted to go as a Christian missionary to the foreign field. She was ordained as a Baptist minister when one son was in Redland's University, California. She did a great deal of home missionary work and speaking. She disliked Idaho but lived there most of her life. Her dentist husband was not interested in religion. He died November 29, 1948 in Pasadena, California--due to cancer. His interment was in California where his mother, father and members of the family were buried. It had been his request.

LETTER TO IMOGENE FROM CARRIE OVER AT WEISER, IDAHO ON SEPTEMBER 7, 1947

As to pictures, I am sending you one of my two sisters, myself and our only brother. It is an old, old picture. Those shirt waists with "choker" collars tell the story. Lillian looked tired, but it was fairly good of us all. I am also sending you a package with a picture of myself and my husband, "Uncle Urb" (Urban is his name) and one of father and mother taken evidently before we left Illinois. We moved to Colorado in 1883. Mother looks pretty sober, but it looked a good deal as I remember her when I was a child. Do not return the one of Urb and me, I have two more like it. They were enlarged from a kodak snap I liked very much. There is also one of mother and my sister Winnie when Win was a girl around 20. She had been seriously sick and we had been forced to cut her beautiful, long, hair. It is about the best picture of Mother I have. Then also in the package is a copper cut of Father's and Mother's last picture. Father was moderator of the First Idaho Association that year. The cut was made so the picture could be put into the copies of the minutes. He died soon afterward. Keep any of these as long as you care to. All may be returned if you do not care for the one of Urb and me. The others I shall be glad to have when you are entirely thru with them. I do not have any negatives of any one. Sorry, if you would care for them.

If (or when) you make copies of the family history Ivan would like to have one. He is quite interested in family trees.

I do not know what Grandfather Elton did. He lived in New Berlin, Connecticut. He died in his thirties, I believe.

THE STORY OF MIDDLETOWN (page 35-38) BY ERNEST W. MANDEVILLE

There are two accounts of the coming of Richard Stout and his family, together with five other families, to settle in Middletown. One history gives this a 1648 date, and the other 1655.

Smith's History of New Jersey stated that there were some fifty families residing in Middletown, about the year 1650.

To a woman must go the credit of bringing most of the first permanent white settlers to Middletown.

It happened this way:

New Amsterdam, which was afterwards called New York, was at this time in the possession of the Dutch.

A ship from Holland, bringing passengers to New Amsterdam, was wrecked off Sandy Hook. Among the passengers who safely reached the shore was

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY
THEORY OF THE ATOM

1. The first part of the theory of the atom is the study of the properties of the electron. The electron is a particle of matter which has a mass of 9.1×10^{-31} grams and a charge of 1.6×10^{-19} coulombs. It is found that the electron is a constituent of all atoms and is present in the same number in each atom of a given element. The electron is also found to be a constituent of the cathode rays and of the beta rays of radioactive substances.

2. The second part of the theory of the atom is the study of the properties of the proton. The proton is a particle of matter which has a mass of 1.67×10^{-24} grams and a charge of 1.6×10^{-19} coulombs. It is found that the proton is a constituent of all atoms and is present in the same number in each atom of a given element. The proton is also found to be a constituent of the alpha rays of radioactive substances. The study of the properties of the proton leads to the discovery of the neutron, a particle of matter which has a mass of 1.67×10^{-24} grams and no charge.

3. The third part of the theory of the atom is the study of the properties of the neutron. The neutron is a particle of matter which has a mass of 1.67×10^{-24} grams and no charge. It is found that the neutron is a constituent of all atoms and is present in the same number in each atom of a given element. The neutron is also found to be a constituent of the gamma rays of radioactive substances.

4. The fourth part of the theory of the atom is the study of the properties of the nucleus. The nucleus is the central part of an atom and is composed of protons and neutrons. The study of the properties of the nucleus leads to the discovery of the fission and fusion of atoms. The fission of an atom is the process by which a heavy nucleus splits into two or more lighter nuclei. The fusion of two atoms is the process by which two light nuclei combine to form a heavier nucleus. The study of the properties of the nucleus also leads to the discovery of the radioactivity of certain elements.

Penelope VanPrincis. Her husband who was so sick that he was unable to flee over-land to New Amsterdam, with the other passengers, remained in the Navesink woods in the faithful care of his wife, Penelope. She paid no heed to the pleas of her fellow passengers, that it was too dangerous for a woman to stay behind and face the peril of falling in the hands of hostile Indians.

Their fears were not unfounded, for soon a band of red men came upon her, and her invalid husband. First they slew the helpless man and then proceeded to kill her. They left her so mangled from tomahawk wounds that they considered her dead. But Penelope was not killed. When she regained consciousness she crawled into a hollow tree, and there she stayed for several days, depending for food chiefly upon the fungous excrescences and gum which grew on the outside of it, for poor Penelope was not able to go in search of berries and other food.

One morning while she was dragging her wounded body along the ground, searching for a pool of water, two tall Indians came upon her, much astonished at finding a white woman and marveling at her endurance and courage through unspeakable hardships. One of them tossed Penelope over his shoulder, and carried her to their camp, near Middletown, where she was given food and drink, and her wounds dressed in Indian fashion.

Later her fellow passengers, now safely in New Amsterdam, sent back for her, and located her in Middletown, comfortable in her own wigwam with plenty to eat and drink, and good Indian clothes to wear.

A year or two later, at the age of twenty-two, Penelope met in New Amsterdam an Englishman named Richard Stout, and married him there. She induced him to sail across the bay and settle at Middletown, near those who had saved her life. Many of Richard Stout's friends thereupon visited the happy couple, and took up their residence in friendly Middletown.

FROM BENEDICT'S "HISTORY OF THE BAPTISTS" QUOTED IN "THE STORY OF MIDDLETOWN," by Ernest W. Mandeville (page 38-39)

The family of the Stouts are so remarkable for their number, origin, and character, in both church and state, that their history deserves to be conspicuously recorded; and no place can be so proper as that of Hopewell, where the bulk of the family resides. We have already seen that Jonathan Stout and family were the seed of the Hopewell Church, and the beginning of Hopewell settlement; and that of the 15 which constituted the church, nine were Stouts. The church was constituted at the house of a Stout, and the meetings were held chiefly at the dwellings of the Stouts for 41 years, viz., from the beginning of the settlement to the building of the meeting-house, before described. Mr. Hart was of the opinion (in 1790) "that from first to last, half the members have been and were of that name: for, in looking over the church book, (saith he) I found that near 200 of the name have been added; besides about as many more of the blood of the Stouts, who had lost the name by marriages. The present (1790) two deacons and four elders, are Stouts; the late Zebulon and David Stout were two of its main pillars; the last lived to see his offspring multiplied into 117 souls." The origin of this Baptist is no less remarkable; for they all sprang from one woman, and she as good as dead; her history is in the mouths of most of her posterity, and is told as follows:

"She was born at Amsterdam, about the year 1602; her father's name was Vanprincis; she and her first husband (whose name is not known) sailed for New York (then New Amsterdam) about the year 1620; the vessel was stranded at Sandy Hook: the crew got ashore, and marched towards the said New York; but Penelope's (for that was her name) husband being hurt in the wreck, could not march with them; therefore, he and the wife tarried in the woods; they had not been long in the place, before the Indians killed them both, (as they thought) and stripped them to the skin; however, Penelope came to, though her skull was fractured, and her left shoulder so hacked, that she could never use that arm like the other; she was also cut across the abdomen, so that her bowels appeared; these she kept in with her hand; she continued in this situation for seven days, taking shelter in a hollow tree, and eating the excrement of it; the seventh day she saw a deer passing by with arrows sticking in it, and soon after two Indians appeared, whom she was glad to see, in hope they would put her out of her misery; accordingly, one made towards her to knock her on the head; but the other, who was an elderly man, prevented him; and throwing his matchcoat about her, carried her to his wigwam, and cured her of her wounds and bruises. It was in New York, that one Richard Stout married her; he was a native of England, and a good family; she was now in her 22nd year, and he in his 40th. She bore him seven sons and three daughters, viz: Jonathan (founder of Hopewell) John, Richard, James, Peter, David, Benjamin, Mary, Sarah, and Alice; the daughters married into the families of the Bounds, Pikes, Throckmortons, and Skeltons, and so lost the name of Stout; the sons married into the families of Bullen, Crawford, Ashton, Truax, etc, and had many children. The mother lived to the age of 110, and saw her offspring multiplied into 502, in about 88 years."

Later on, according to the famous story of Penelope Stout, one of her old Indian friends came to her new home and warned her of a fearful Indian uprising. Mrs. Stout, now with two children, beseeched her friend to quiet the uprising, and assure the hostile Indians of the white man's good intentions. This he could not do, but he showed her how to escape to New Amsterdam, with her children. Farmer Stout remained in Middletown, called the inhabitants to arms and then treated with the approaching Red Men so successfully that, according to Frank R. Stockton, in his "Stories of New Jersey," a general conference was held, in which the whites agreed to buy the lands on which they had built their town, and an alliance was made for mutual protection, and assistance. This compact was faithfully observed as long as there were any Indians in the neighborhood, and Middletown grew and flourished.

RICHARD STOUT

Richard Stout I was married in 1643 or 1644 to Penelope Van Princis. Was son of John Stout of Nottinghamshire, England.

Penelope Van Princis was on a Dutch ship from Amsterdam (first Dutch ship to America) landed at Sandy Hook--husband too sick to go on ship again so they were left--Indians found them, killed husband and left her for dead. She lived in a hollow log for days when two Indians found her and one carried her to place where Middletown now stands. Indian cured her. Dutch in New Amsterdam heard a white woman was there and came to her relief. The old Indian came to visit her after she married Mr. Stout and she lived near Middletown. The Indian got a ransom.

David's brother Jonathan Stout born about 1646 was the seed of the Hopewell Baptist Church and beginning of Hopewell settlement. Baptist church held in his home 40 years.

Penelope was born about 1602. Her father's name was Vanprincis. 22 years old when she married Stout. She had 7 sons and 3 daughters. Lived 110 years.

Portrait and biographical album of Rock Island county, Illinois. Chicago, Biographical pub. co., 1885. pp 454

William H. Lundy, one of the most prominent young men of Rock Island county, enjoys the distinction of having served the city a greater number of years successively as alderman than any other man, is a native of Naperville, Ill., where he was born May 17, 1848. His parents, John G. and Elizabeth (Dyment) Lundy, were born in the north of Ireland and England respectively. They married in Canada and came to Illinois settling in DuPage county in 1836, where their six children were born and where Mrs. Lundy yet lives, the senior Mr. Lundy having died in 1881.

The subject of this sketch was brought up to farming, the duties whereof he alternated with attendance at the Naperville schools...He left home when about 20 years of age and went to Chicago, where he was employed as a clerk in a jewelry store about a year. From there he came to Rock Island and engaged in the business he has since followed, viz: dealer in house furnishing goods of every description.

Mr. Lundy was first elected Alderman in 1875 from the Second Ward and continued in that office up to the spring of 1883, when he headed the Democratic ticket as candidate for Mayor. In this he was defeated by only two votes, after one of the hottest contests ever witnessed in Rock Island...

Mr. Lundy is an ardent and uncompromising Democrat...He has represented the party three or four times as delegate to State Conventions, and the Congressional Conventions as often as they have occurred since he became a citizen of Rock Island.

In 1882 he represented Rock Island at large as Delegate in the Hennepin Canal Convention, at Davenport, and again in the same cause and capacity at Washington, D. C. in 1884...Mr. Lundy is prominently identified with the Masonic fraternity, also with the I. O. O. F., K. of P. and the "Red Men."

Mr. Lundy formed a matrimonial alliance Oct. 9, 1881, at Rock Island city with Miss Ida Phillips, a native of Davenport, Iowa, and their only child bears the name of Edna Josephine.

No information on the Eltons, other than the brief mentions sent you in 1948, was found. No reference to a brother of William Lundy's who married a sister of Julia Elton Lundy was found. Death records for Rock Island County, 1878 to date, are filed in the office of the County Clerk at Rock Island. Evidently William H. Lundy was married twice. If his first wife died after 1878 her death record should give the names of her parents and place and date of birth.

County of Rock Island, Illinois--Office of County Clerk: "The marriage license is on file in our office. This marriage took place on October 16, 1868." This refers to marriage of William H. Lundy and Julia Churchill Elton. A book by H. F. Kett gives marriage date as 1869, a year later. Another letter states, "The death records of this county (Rock Island, Ill.) were begun in 1878. It is most likely that the death of Julia Lundy occurred before this year, for we have searched the records and do not find her name."

4. Dr. John (2) Elton, son of Ebenezer (2) Elton, was born in Harwinton or Waterbury on October 6, 1755. He studied his profession under his half-brother, Dr. James Elton, to whose practice he succeeded in Watertown, then Westbury when Dr. James removed to Middletown. He was surgeon of Lieut-Colonel Baldwin's regiment in the revolution in 1777. He was leading Physician and surgeon there for 24 years, sustaining the reputation of his brother. He was followed by his son, Doctor Samuel Elton. Page 556 of this history contains pictures of James S. Elton and James Prince Elton. Notice that John Elton from Bristol, England had three sons-- John Richard and Ebenezer, and Ebenezer had a son, Ebenezer born 1712 who had a son - Nathan Noah born July 12, 1782. That Nathan Noah could be the ancestor of the Joseph B. Elton who married Emeline Churchill and named his son Edwin Nathan Elton born May 22, 1842. A John P. Elton died November 10, 1864 --age 55 years. A memorial window for him was given by Mrs. Betsy Elton, to the St. Johns Parish Church-- Waterbury, Conn. Notes say that there were a Waterbury Brass Company, Cutler and Manufacturing Co., owned by the Elton families. (Vol. #3)

Samuel Hubbard of Berlin, Conn., born 1736 and died August 23, 1813, married Jane Highbee, a daughter of Isaac and Dinah (Elton) Highbee. Samuel was the oldest child and oldest son of Samuel Hubbard, of Farmington County, who was born October 4, 1704 and died in 1777. (His father was Samuel Hubbard of Farmington County, Born March 27, 1678 and died May 19, 1745) So three Samuel Hubbards in a direct line.

August 21, 1942

Dear Mrs. Elton Harris:

Your letter received, regarding information of the Elton family. I am afraid the information that I can give you will not help you very much. Mr. Elton's father died when he was but fourteen and since then the people I could get the information from have passed away. Mr. Elton's father, John Elton was born in Burlington, Conn., in 1840. He had a brother, John and one Henry and also a sister. His grandfather was Alonzo Elton who died in March (22) 1896, at the age of 88 years. There are several Eltons buried in the town of Burlington that Mr. Elton does not know about. We went to two different cemeteries and found the stones of a Benjamin Elton who died in 1836 at the age of 76 and also a William Elton who died August 17, 1871 age 93 yrs. Romeo Elton who died in 1889 at the age of 72. AND A WILLIAM ELTON WHO DIED ON APRIL 1882 - AGED 74.

Mr. Elton's father lived in Burlington most of his life and was buried there in the same cemetery with most of the other Eltons so it seems to me they have come from the same family way back somewhere.

I will go to Burlington some day and search the records to see if I can get more information for you. The town of Burlington has been brought up by a water Company, so there are not many people living there now. I wish I could tell you where you could get the information you are looking for but I cannot help you any more now. Mr. Elton had a cousin who is quite an old lady. I tried to get some information from her and she said she thought the Berlin Eltons were related but that was all she knew. My husband will be 60 yrs in November and he has one brother older and one younger that died three years ago.

This is the best that I can do for you at the present time but should I gather more information, you will hear from me again.

Sincerely Yours,

Mrs Edwin H. Elton.

Nov. 10, 1903, Useful Lives.--- Newspaper clippings.

Monday Afternoon about 4 O'clock, Mrs E. N. Elton passed quietly from this life, after years of patient suffering. So peaceful was the end that loved ones watching could not tell when it came. A few days before she had contracted a cold, but seemed better, and the only alarming symptom in her condition that day was a drowsy wondering of the mind, though she quickly rallied and regained consciousness when spoken to. Death was due to dropsy, from which, coupled with partial paralysis, heart disease and attendant disorders. She had been an invalid for more than three years.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church Wednesday afternoon Rev. Leger, of Middle Walley conducting and the body laid to rest in the Salubria Cemetery beside her husband who preceded her four years and a daughter who went ten years before. She leaves four children, Mrs. I. B. Harris of Fort Collins, Colorado, Mrs. U. M. Over of Cambridge, Mrs. I. L. Root and Edwin Elton of Salubria, all of whom were present at the funeral. A brother, E. S. Baxter of Butte, Montana and a sister, Mrs S. A. Hunter of Boulder, Col., and ten grandchildren.

Mary Irene Baxter was born in the State of New York, May 16, 1843; On August 14, 1862 when 19 years old, she was married to Edwin N. Elton, at Edgington, Illinois. They lived in that place a number of years then moved to Colorado and finally located in Salubria in the Spring of 1891.

Mary Irene Baxter (Elton) had cousins by name of Louis or Lewis McHenry and Rebecca McHenry both of Hardtrack, New York.

Rebecca was a school teacher and came out from New York State to visit in Colorado about 1887. Were children of Mary Irene's father's sister or mother's sister.

Found in San Francisco, California, Public Library--- Elton Genealogy of Connecticut. Lewis Historical Publishing Co., Volume 3. --- William Richard Cutter 1911. The surname Elton is of ancient English Origin, taken from some place name, as early as 1500. The family name is well known in Wiltshire, England. A branch of this family from Sowley or Soley, of Chilton Folliatt, Wiltshire, settled in New Jersey. An elaborate history of various branches of the Elton Family and related Mayo families in England has been published, (Mayo- Elton families of Wilts and Herfordshire). One of the early settlers of Southold, Long Island was in Elton, and he was admitted a freeman of Connecticut in 1602. It was likely that he was the father of the progenitor of the Connecticut branch and related to the New Jersey branch of the Elton family.

1. John Elton, progenitor of the Conn., family came from Bristol, England, and settled in Middletown, Conn. He married Jane _____. Children born in Middletown were: Mary Born July 26, 1672; Richard born February 11, 1674. He died young. John - born November 16, 1676. He was living in Middletown in 1730 and 1738 when he witnessed wills of Thomas Ward and Samuel Cotton. Richard born April 20, 1679 and he married Elizabeth, the daughter of John Wetmore. Ann born September 9, 1681. Ebenezer, mentioned below born May 11, 1686.
2. Ebenezer, son of John Elton was born at Middletown, Conn., on May 11, 1686. He was lost at sea when a young man. His home was Bradford, Conn. He left one child named Ebenezer who is father mentioned below.
3. Ebenezer Elton was born in Bradford, Conn., in 1712. He settled first at Middletown and finally at Harwinton, Conn. He married (first) Hannah Ward of Middletown. She died in 1754 and he married (second) on January 23, 1755, Hannah Bacon of Middletown. The first of these is the fact that the American Medical Association is a voluntary association of physicians and surgeons. It is not a government agency, nor is it a part of the government. It is a private organization, and its members are free to join or leave it at will. This is one of the reasons why the American Medical Association is able to maintain its independence and to act in the best interests of the medical profession.

BURLINGTON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

457 High Street, Burlington, N. J.

August 2, 1942

Mrs. George E. Harris
80 East Fifth St. Peru, Ind.

My dear Mrs. Harris,

There seems to be no references to Eltons in books on genealogy which are available to me. There are some references in N. J. Archives however and I think they are the basis for part of the information which I will pass on to you. Some time ago a local genealogist and historian prepared some material on the Coles family for a cousin of mine and she has allowed me to make a copy of it. Thomas and Mary (Elton) Kendall had a daughter Mary who married Samuel Coles II and the historian furnished information on the earliest families intermarried with the Coles.

Here is the material on the Eltons:

"Thomas Kendall may have been a Quaker, probably was, when he came to this country but his marriages were solemnized in Open Court at Burlington and hence contrary to Friends Discipline which would cause his disownment, he must have left them. There appears to have been no other religious society than the Quakers in the Burlington Colony for several years after the first settlement. St. Mary's Church, Burlington, founded in 1702 was the first Episcopal or Church of England organized congregation in West New Jersey. The Eltons were no doubt Church of England people and not Quakers.

The first of the Elton family of whom we have any knowledge is Anthony Elton of Sowley (now Soley) in the parish of Chelton Folliat, Wiltshire, England, Yeoman. His brother Thomas who lived at the same place, died in March 1619 without issue, bequeathing one-fourth of his estate to Anthony. Anthony had a daughter and a son Robert who married Jane who died 4-20-1663. He then married Margery.

"Robert and Jane had issue:

Anthony
Robert	buried 8-14-1648
Dorothy	married Chichester
Mary	married Maundy

Anthony Elton (Robert and Jane) of Yatesbury, Wiltshire, England, married Susannah _____. He was church warden of the Parish of Yatesburg for 7 years serving first in 1660.

In June 1677 he purchased of Thomas Hooten of London one full 1/8 part of 1/90 part of 90/100 parts of the province of West New Jersey. He came to this country in 1678 and settled on Northampton River (Rancocas). He died in 1685. His will was probated Jan. 31, 1686. The inventory of his estate foots up to 938, 16 s. of which 60 for land in England, 40 for 400 acres in Pennsylvania and town and city lots, 280 for house and plantation, 25 for 100 acres and town lot in Burlington, 8 Society's Stock, 35 for 2 negroes and a covenanted servant. Letters of administration were granted his widow Susannah.

Susannah his widow removed to Philadelphia and died before 12-17-1702 at which time her will was probated then.

Anthony and Susannah had issue:

Anthony	married 2-20-1688 Elizabeth Revell
Thomas	died without issue in 1695

From material found in N. J. Archives there seems to have been a daughter Jane who married Samuel Abbett for in 1678 a claim of hers was settled by her father's estate. The statement of the historian that a daughter married Joshua Newbold is probably based on Anthony's will in which he mentioned his brother-in-law Joshua Newbold. This man married a sister to Elizabeth Revell Elton as proved by the will of Elizabeth's mother.

Anthony Elton is listed in the Calendar of Records Archives as an Agriculturalist.

The will of his son Anthony Elton of Northampton Township, Burlington Co. yeoman, was probated Nov. 11, 1702. He left children--Elizabeth, Revell (under age) Robert, Anthony, Mary, Hannah, William. His wife Elizabeth daughter of Thomas and Mary Revell died in 1708. Thomas Revell was Provincial Clerk & Recorder and lived from 1696-1699 in a house near the River Bank in Burlington. This house built in 1685 is still standing --the oldest house in the County - is still known as the Revell house and is now the property of the Annis Stockton Chapter of D. A. R.

The recent biography of John Woolman by Janet Payne Whitney reveals the fact that his sister Sarah married Robert Elton in 1737.

Revell Elton seems to have been very active as witness, maker of inventory or administrator for estates - as was his father, Anthony II."

I know of no book where you could find more material on the Elton family except perhaps later volumes of the Index to Wills. If I do find anything further on the early family I will send it on to you.

Hoping this will be of help to you,

Sincerely,

H. Dorothy Atkinson

Genealogist of Burl. County Historical Soc.

p 368 - Elton Romeo DD

Was born in Ellington, Conn., probably in 1790. He spent his early days on the farm of his father, but was unfitted by temperament and physical weakness for agricultural pursuits. He became a member of Brown University and graduated in the class of 1813. Having devoted some time to the study of theology, he was ordained as pastor of the second Baptist church in Newport R. I. June 11, 1817. Ill health obliged him to resign. The same cause also forced him to give up his ministry in Windsor, Vt., whither he had gone from Newport. Invited to take the chair of professor of the Latin & Greek languages in Brown University in 1825. From 1827 to 1843 he was connected with Brown. After resigning from Brown he went to England and resided in Exeter for 22 years and in Bath 2 years. He returned to U. S. A. in 1869 and resided in Rhode Island and Boston, in which city he died February 5, 1870. Wrote several books. Bequeathed $20,000 to Brown and nearly as much to Columbian College.

Dear Mrs. Harris:

You probably will be surprised to be hearing from me and especially in reply for A. M. Hunter whom you wrote two years ago for information of the family. Cousin Milton Hunter is an old man now and has been shaky due to taking insulin because of diabetes severely. He asked me to write you the information he had. You may wonder who I am. I am the youngest of three sons of Carrie Elton Over (Mrs. U. M. O.) of Cambridge, Idaho. I have heard of your husband ever since I was a small boy. My Mother and his mother were sisters I believe. Some of the Elton's Cousins or nephews (brother and sister and nephew) are here in Calif., I have seen some of them and had them in my home when Mother was here five years ago. As Milton spoke I will give you what little I remember S, H E

1. Clara--had a family- Clarence, a hardware man- now dead.
2. Estelle married Sellers- now dead. Had 3 children- 2 girls are married.
3. William Hunter- from Virginia, married Mr. Roy- has a baby, few months. Son Walter--21 in Navy (Machine Shop)
4. Milton Hunter- Had daughter -Pearl- Married Mr. Lewis--now dead. Had son Wyatt--had 2 sons. Had daughter-- Corabelle--boy 4--girl 1.
5. Ella. ⁵
 1. Sarah- lived in Coolidge, Arizona. 42 yrs. OLD
 2. Haynes-- Killed in mine at Boulder.
 3. Dorothy- died 2 yrs ago
 4. Albert-- lives in Globe, Arizona 33 yrs old.
6. A. Gallatin-- lived in early time in N. Y. moved to Illinois by way of lumber raft of brother (who was the brother?) in lumber business (Grandfather of A. Milton Hunter).
7. Mary Salter Baxter had a sister (Charity Sortore) married a Thompson. Anne Sortore married a William Earley. Can he give first names of Thompson and Sortore? Thompson has 2 boys.
Mary Salter born in Chautauqua, N. Y. died at about December 1876 or January 1877 at age of 77? in Illinois. Mary Salter Baxter had--
 1. Sarah B. -- married William F. Hunter in Illinois. Had 4 daughters all died as children. Then moved to Colorado. While there Milton and William were born. William died at age of 2 yrs. Clara Irene born, married Nelse King--died 2 yrs ago at the age of 76 years.

Also Ella born- lived in Arizona now(but moving back to Colo., to be with daughter-in-law of deceased husband). DAVID STOUT BAXTER
8. Albert and Mary Baxter, had grandson, David Stout Baxter, died in San Francisco, about 5 yrs. ago. He has 2 daughters operating a beauty shop some where in Northern California.

Milton spoke of the Dutch in the early days. Originally they were the New Amsterdam (N. Y.) Dutch. They were forced to split and divide, being called the Amsterdam Dutch and the Jersey Dutch. When this one happened due to the Indians, was when this one lady was forced to flee. Milton's story is that her husband was killed and she was pregnant at that time. She fled into the woods toward Jersey and traveled at night and slept in the daytime. One day she was sleeping in a hollow log, awoke and heard the Indians sitting on the log talking and hunting for her. She did escape and had the child in Jersey. He did not know more.

The Origion of one descendant of the Dutch was on the original Dutch boat in 1633 I believe or 1623 landing and naming New Amsterdam (N. Y. now. Several severa hardships from lack of food and cold and trouble with the Indians made the first year a hard one.

WITH more than his money but maby he felt differently about it. He did become important in the formation of the Government, but I know very little. I would appreciate the complete file of the family history sometime as you have it.

Sincerely,

Dale C. Over.

In 1952 an inquiry sent to the Historical Society of Pennsylvania about Cyrus Churchill or his sister Emeline brought the reply, "We regret that we cannot answer your genealogical question. Prior to 1860 official records of vital statistics do not exist in most Pennsylvania Counties". They suggested that a reserch worker be employed to check Church, Court records and directories.

Mary Lillian Elton was born April 18, 1866 on her Grandfather Albert Baxter's farm near Edgerton, Illinois. She was educated at Cordova, Illinois highschool. When a girl, she lay in bed one year with a flat iron tied to her foot because of hip trouble. Later she walked on crutches for three years. She married Issaac Blair Harrie (born 1859) on December 24, 1885 at Fort Collins, Colorado. married by her father Rev. E. N. Elton. The young couple lived on a farm, three miles west of Fort Collins, Colorado.

They homesteaded land near Wellington, Colorado. Mary Lillian was the mother of nine children. The home was not a happy one and in 1904 her husband left the family, willed her the house and forty acres of land. The older children helped their mother support the family. Mary Lillian moved to Liberty, Missouri, in December 1913 where she helped with finances by renting rooms to college students. Her sons George Elton and Carrol worked their way through college and helped their mother. The girls worked at the telephone office and helped with family finances. In April 1917 Mary Lillian took her daughter Estelle and son Carrol to Gulfport, Mississippi. Carrol had a weak heart, had been bedfast eleven weeks, and the doctor advised moving to a lower altitude. But in September her son Arthur's wife died, so Mary Lillian went to Colorado to help take care of Arthur's small children, Ida and Virgil, and keep house for them. Daughter Estelle stayed with Carrol in Mississippi. When Carrol had another heart attack in Dec., 1919 his mother went back to Gulfport, taking a sister Verda along. They remained there till Carrol died on January 14, 1920. All returned to Fort Collins, Colorado and Carrol was buried there. Mary Lillian then went to the Harris farm three miles west of Fort Collins to live with her daughter Lillian and husband Geter Farmer who rented the farm at that time. On November 24, 1929, Mary Lillian filed for land and began to homestead land near her son Arthur's ranch at Encampment, Wyoming in 1930. About one year later she became ill with pneumonia and died in Denver, Colorado at St. Luke's hospital on December 27, 1931. She is buried in Fort Collins, Colorado, beside her son Carrol and near her grandfather Baxter.

Mary Lillian Elton Harris was about five feet and two inches tall, small of bone, small feet and hands, beautifully proportioned body, no physical defects. Had dark brown hair, blue eyes, was right handed. She was religious, intelligent, proud and rather pessimistic.

Copy from a letter EDWINA ELTON ROOT wrote to her niece Estelle Harris Brown in 1939.

"I expect Carrie told you that father, Edwin Nathan Elton, was born in Connecticut on May 22, 1842. Educated at Surleff College (Shurtleff) Upper Alton, Ill. Isaac Blair Harris named his daughter Margurite, Maggie, because that was the name of his favorite cousin. Estelle Harris said that her cousin Mariam Archibald wrote a letter saying that Isaac was reared as her brother in her mother's home, and he was very pampered and spoiled. Isaac's aunt who reared him was Mariam Daniels who married Charles Archibald.

LETTER FROM MRS. I. L. ROOT, WEISER, IDAHO, TO MRS. GEORGE ELTON HARRIS

"We were glad to hear from you and are so glad your church is so active and alert. Also glad the four of your children and their families spent Christmas with you. Children are so much fun at Christmas time especially and your Uncle and I always enjoy them.

None of ours live near enough us to come for the holidays but your uncle's brother's daughter teaches in Ontario which is fifteen or twenty miles from Weiser and she spends her winter vacations with us and that helps to make the occasion more enjoyable. This year the three of us spent the day with Aunt Carrie and Uncle Urb and their son Ivan who was home for Christmas. Needless to say that we had a nice time. Poor Uncle Urb could not eat but sat at the table and joined in the conversation.

New Year's Elton Over and his family were here visiting his folks and all of the Over's were here for New Year's dinner and that day Uncle Urb felt better and ate some.

Aunt Carrie being older than I can remember and so tell you more about our family history than I can. I think but am not at all certain that Nathan Noah Elton was my father's father but I am not certain enough to say he was. I do know that Edwin Nathan was my father's name.

If you sent the picture of Grandfather and Grandmother (Polly) Baxter, I have not seen it. Perhaps Aunt Carrie has it. I phoned her and she says she has not, so I guess you did not send it, or it got lost on the way.

Not knowing what pictures Aunt Carrie sent of us, I do not know what to send. Enclosed is a small one of a group of us but do not know as it is anything you can use. Of course you know which is your uncle and me. Between Ira's and my heads is Warren Lorenzo, our oldest son. Next to him is Howard Sidney, our youngest son. The one you saw at Estelle's at Fort Collins. The third man is Lewis Edwin, our middle son. The girl next to me is Elizabeth (Betty to us) Warren's wife and the one at the end is Nina, Lewis' wife. In front of Nina is Manley Lewis, next William Edwin, and Eileen Teinette, Lewis and Nina's three children. These pictures were taken before Howard and Fern were married and they have been married seven years and have two nice little girls. The oldest 5½ years and the baby 14 months.

I cannot tell you much about Aunt Carrie's missionary work. She worked as a home missionary for several years in Colo., and for a short time in Idaho. After father's death and the town of Cambridge became the town she rode horseback from Salubria, Ida., where they were living with us after father's passing and organized the Baptist church in Cambridge and several years later was ordained. But as to piecing her work together I cannot.

a Lorenzo Root graduated from college with best honors. He worked eighteen years for a rail road company. In later life he owned a small farm on which he grew vegetables for market. His death occurred on May 19, 1951, Weiser, Idaho.

Edwin's address is Edwin C. Elton, 2072 E. Oakwood, Pasadena 7, Calif. but he left home years ago and is 8 years younger than Aunt Carrie and I feel sure will not be able to help you.

Will be glad to have a photostatic copy of my birth record so when you get one please let me know what it cost and I will remit."

MISS ANNIE E. ROOT

"Miss Annie E. Root is a member of the faculty of Shanghai University and secretary to T. K. Van, President. She went there at a time when great changes impended both in the nation and in the university. Miss Root was born in Idaho and she graduated from Linfield College, McMinnville, Oregon, where she took the degree of B. A. Besides serving as secretary to the President, she taught typing and English in the Middle School of Shanghai and English in the College.

Miss Root has been in Shanghai during difficult and dangerous times. When Dr. H. C. E. Liu was assassinated she continued to serve, carrying on nobly. The University classes have had to be conducted off the campus, in the city's downtown section, in cooperation with refugee schools. As it is not yet possible to move the University classes back to the campus, quarters have been expanded in various buildings, including the True Light Building owned by Baptists, so rather a high standard of educational work is being done. The Middle School occupies the premises in the morning, the University classes are in the afternoon and in the evening the Night School classes are carried on. Hence one can see that all buildings are fully utilized. For many years the University of Shanghai has limited the colleges to an enrollment of 600 students. During this school year it has grown to the 780 mark. Her story will be vital and timely.

Miss Root arrived in San Francisco on December 8, 1940." DATA PUBLISHED

Edwin Churchill Elton named Churchill because he was born on his uncle Cyrus Churchill's birthday, December 14. Edwin had a formal education through grade school. His parents did not like the teacher who was not a Christian, so they allowed Edwin to stop attending school. Edwin and wife Cora devoted much time to helping the G. A. R. and old soldiers. Their home in Pasadena is a historic house, over 100 years old in 1948. Cora Dale Elton taught school at Weiser, Idaho, before her marriage. She had red hair. She spent many years after her marriage in the real estate business. Mr. Elton was a very active member of the Masonic lodge. He said his mother's people the Baxters all had the bad fault of a "know it all," streak. He has the Edwin Nathan Elton Civil War record--the enlistment and discharge papers.

Did any of these Stouts serve in the Revolutionary War?

John Stout
of Nottinghamshire,
England.

Elijah Baxter born 1837 lived in Butte, Montana. He married and had no children. He and his wife lived in a very meager fashion but were able to will a large sum of money to the city of Butte. None to relatives.

H. R. Sortore cashier of State Bank of Belmont, N. Y. says, "A Miss Kate Baxter in New York has Baxter family records. He also thinks a Mr.
R. J. Baxter at 72 Knowlton Avenue, Kenmore N. Y. 17 is related.

A book by Frances Baxter "The Baxter Family" does not list an Albert Gallatin Baxter or his children but does name a John W. Baxter who lived in Friendship, New York in 1820, 1828, 1830, 1834--1838--and 1856. He was a lumberman, so he moved to nearby villages often. He had several children.
Dorcus born April 11, 1815; Henry born January 11, 1817; Nancy born November
28, 1818; James born November 28, 1819 and Richard Brush born February 28, 1822. These Baxters may have been cousins to Albert Gallatin Baxter.

Albert G. Baxter was very musical. His death was caused by taking an overdose of laudanum--he was ill, tried to get relief but accidentally took too much medicine.

Mary Irene Baxter born in Friendship, her father was Albert Gallatin
Baxter. New York--1843

Oliver Baxter migrated to Hempstead Queen's County, New York. On April 24, 1748 Oliver Baxter bought land on Cow Neck--6 Acres.

In Boston Public Library "The Baxter Family," by Frances Baxter

page 105 we have a Charles Carroll 8 Baxter (John W. 7, John 6, Pettit 5, John 4, John 3, Thomas 2, Thomas 1) born in Friendship, New York Dec. 15th 1840 so he must have been a first cousin of Mary Irene Baxter who was born there 3 years later as he was not her brother.

John W. 7 (See Above) was born at North Salem in 1792. His father John 6 removed to Milton in 1804 & to Broadalbin, Montgomery County about 1809, where he married Mary McQueen daughter of James and Grizel (Waterman) McQueen and grand-daughter of Alexander and Isabel (Moore) McQueen. Alexander McQueen came to America from Scotland before the Revolution.

Grizel (Waterman) McQueen of Pittsfield, Mass--father was Asa Waterman, English.

Mary McQueen was born at Mayfield N. Y. June 17, 1796, Died Sept. 17, 1880 at Friendship. Married to John W. Baxter Feb. 17, 1814 at Mayfield by Elder Nichols.

John W. 7 Baxter after marriage removed to Palatine in 1815 and to Friendship in 1820, to Canadea in 1825, to Friendship in 1828, to Canadea in 1829, to Friendship in 1830, to Olean in 1832, to Friendship in 1834, in 1838 from South-eastern part of Friendship to North-western part. In 1856 he removed to Friendship village where he died March 29, 1862. Was a farmer and lumberman.

They had:

Dorcas born April 11, 1815
Henry born Jan. 11, 1817
Nancy born Nov. 28, 1818
James born Nov. 28, 1819
Richard Brush born Feb. 28, 1822

These boys were not the father of
Mary Irene
Baxter as he was Albert Gallatin Baxter.

John Baxter (6) was a Revolutionary soldier record p 71 "The Baxter Family" by Frances Baxter. (See in Boston Public Library) About 9 Baxters of New York were Revolutionary soldiers.

Friendship, New York--History of Allegany Co. N. Y. 1879 p 272-289
N. Y.-82-1

Holland Land Company sold sites 1806 for Friendship

John W. Baxter came to Friendship in 1820 according to the statement of his son Henry. Served in the Revolution and came from Montgomery Co. on foot. He selected lot no. 9. He was the father of Professor James W. Baxter of the Baxter University of music and Henry Baxter (historian) Bought 364 acres. Also father of Charles Carroll Baxter and see other children's names.

Town officers were Supervisor (1815 on) Henry Baxter 1843.

Colonel Samuel King in an early day built a grist mill in the eastern part of the village, now owned by J. L. Baxter.

Baptist Church 1822 organized into a church. Mrs. Polly Baxter and Nancy McQueen were the first persons baptized.

James W. Baxter President of University of Music born in Palatine, Montgomery County 1819 came to Friendship 1820 with his parents.

John L. Baxter, Miller born in Olean in 1832 and came to Friendship with parents when 1 year old in 1856 he removed to Cattaraugus County (10 yrs there) then back to Friendship. Lumbering--wife was Miss Ellen Phelon a native of Ireland who came to America in 1851.

John Baxter 6 was a Revolutionary soldier of New York. He lived at North Salem in 1792 because notes say a son John W. 7 was born there. He removed to Milton in 1804 and to Broadalbin in Montgomery County about 1809. I think he is our line.

Dear Mrs. Harris:

Your letter written to me at Globe reached me at Sarah's yesterday. My mother in a wheel chair for five years had me write family history. Began with Father William Fisk Hunter. Mother Sarah Ann Baxter born June 16, 1828 at Chautauqua, New York (then I add that at the age of 17 she and her father Albert Baxter went to Illinois partly at least on a raft.) She was the oldest of five children. George, lost at sea, ran away from home. David Stout married--died before son David was born. His wife married one year later, gave babe to his grandmother Mary or Polly Sortore Baxter. He, young David, when perhaps 16 came to Idaho Springs, Colorado to live with Aunt Sarah Hunter and married there. He lived for years in Colorado, then in California, died there over 80 years of age. My brother Albert Milton born July 23rd 1861 probably five years younger than David Junior. Elijah, 3rd son was nine years younger than Sarah--no children. Mary Irene was fifteen years younger than Sarah - ~~no children~~. Mary Irene was fifteen years younger than Sarah (Mother). Sarah Ann Baxter Hunter died at Boulder, Colorado on February 24, 1907. Clara Irene Hunter (Sarah's daughter) was married at Valmont, Colorado to J. Nelson King by E. Elton on November 7, 1883; grandfather present, he died, I judge, two years later at Fort Collins, Colorado. I was born at Idaho Springs, Colorado on March 1, 1868. Think I was about six years of age when Grandma Baxter died, I'm just guessing. However, Mother said Grandma was nine years older than Grandfather and he outlived her nine years. Each being 79 years at time of death. I think Grandmother was buried in the lot with my four sisters who were buried in Illinois before my Father and Mother left Illinois for Colorado. (Spring of 1861): Mary died at Milan, September 8, 1859; Huldah died at Milan, June 31, 1857; Lella died at Milan, January 23, 1860; Martha died at Milan, Illinois on February 8, 1860. Mary was seven years old when she died of quick consumption. Others were babies--one buried at the cemetery while one born at the house. A son, William, died at Idaho Springs, Colorado in 1865. Mother (Sarah Ann) died at Boulder, Colorado on February 24, 1907. Her brother, Elijah Baxter, died two days later at Butte, Montana. He had a stroke the day Mother died - came home and died at Butte, Montana. My son, Haynes Bracy, was killed by a slide in a gold mine near Boulder. Dorothy, my daughter, died two years after her father. So I have daughter Sarah, Mrs. J. Roy Walker, at Casa Grande, Rt. 1, Box 162 and Albert at Globe, Arizona. He works for Miami Copper Company. Married son William A. also at work with Miami Company as a truck driver. Albert has nine children. Earle Gene in Greenland Air Force, CPL, only 18 years. Sarah has son Wallace also 18. Lost triplet girls Dorothy, Diana and Deloris. Am sending photos (Sis has duplicate of Uncle Edwin and Aunt Irene). David Baxter photo made from degaratype, a picture of two Elton girls and a Harris boy. Enclosed photo is Grandma Baxter's sister Lorena Sortore and husband William Early. Mother called Sortores Dutch Jersey. An uncle Alex Thompson, his wife Charity Sortore, was Lorena's sister. New York.

LETTER FROM MRS. ELLA BRACY, CASA GRANDE, ARIZONA ON SEPTEMBER 20, 1948

Dear Mrs. Harris:

ISAAC BLAIR HARRIS

No vital records are kept in Truro, Nova Scotia. Vital records are kept in Halifax, Nova Scotia by the Deputy Registrar General and none previous to the year 1864 had been collected in 1939. A history of Colchester County, Nova Scotia, kept in the New England Historical and Genealogical Hall in Boston states that the brothers Dr. John Harris and Matthew Harris were sent with a vessel of passengers from Philadelphia to survey and colonize a region about Truro, so were early settlers of Pictou in 1767 and Truro in 1776. John or Matthew may be the ancestor of Isaac Blair Harris. Pictou

Isaac Blair Harris was born on a farm owned by his father several miles from Truro, Nova Scotia, near a community known as Beaver Creek. (Some say Beaver Brook down old Barnes way 8 or 10 miles from Truro) In 1936 a Mr. Archibald, a relative, lived in a new house on that farm. In 1934 the old farmhouse was gone but the Old Well remained and rhubarb grew where the garden had been; a steep hill on that farm is still called "Harris Hill". In July 1934, Rev. Geo. Elton Harris visited Truro and his aunt, Mrs. Robert Kaulback (Rebecca Harris, b. 1852 - d. 1/28/1941) and relatives took him to visit that farm. Isaac was born May 5, 1859, the son of George and Sarah (Daniels) Harris. He attended the elementary school and graduated from the 8th grade. He left home at the age of 14, and in 1880 at age of 21 he came to United States. A brother George who had married their first cousin Nancy Archibald, daughter of Charles Archibald and Miriam (Daniels) Archibald, of Truro, Nova Scotia, came later. The brothers immigrated because of the gold and silver boom in Colorado. Isaac Blair spent several months in Idaho Springs and Middle Park, Colorado, then he settled near Fort Collins and bought a 40-acre farm 3 miles west of that town where the old Oregon Trail marked the prairie. Here he met the Baptist minister's daughter Mary Lillian Elton (b. April 18, 1866--died Dec. 28, 1931) and they were married in Fort Collins Dec. 24, 1885. Soon he homesteaded land (160) acres near the present site of Wellington, Colo., and used the prairie for a cattle and sheep ranch. Herding an average of 500. He was naturalized Feb. 7, 1898. Later sold the homestead and bought 100 acres adjoining the Fort Collins farm and 40 acres from Mrs. Dierks.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air. It felt like a warm blanket after a long flight.

2. The second thing I noticed was the beautiful view of the city below. The lights were twinkling, and the streets were busy.

3. The third thing I noticed was the friendly faces of the people I met. They were all smiling and welcoming.

4. The fourth thing I noticed was the delicious food. It was exactly what I needed after a long journey.

5. The fifth thing I noticed was the comfortable bed. It was so soft and cozy, I fell asleep almost immediately.

6. The sixth thing I noticed was the beautiful weather. It was perfect, just what I needed.

7. The seventh thing I noticed was the friendly staff. They were all so helpful and kind.

8. The eighth thing I noticed was the beautiful view of the ocean. It was so peaceful and calming.

9. The ninth thing I noticed was the delicious food. It was so tasty and delicious.

10. The tenth thing I noticed was the friendly faces of the people I met. They were all so nice and welcoming.

11. The eleventh thing I noticed was the beautiful view of the city. It was so beautiful and inspiring.

12. The twelfth thing I noticed was the comfortable bed. It was so soft and cozy.

13. The thirteenth thing I noticed was the delicious food. It was so tasty and delicious.

14. The fourteenth thing I noticed was the friendly faces of the people I met. They were all so nice and welcoming.

15. The fifteenth thing I noticed was the beautiful view of the ocean. It was so peaceful and calming.

16. The sixteenth thing I noticed was the delicious food. It was so tasty and delicious.

17. The seventeenth thing I noticed was the friendly faces of the people I met. They were all so nice and welcoming.

Nine children were born to this union. They lived in a small frame house of 6 rooms. Times were difficult and Isaac Blair was not practical enough to raise a garden to supply adequate food for his family--he did not love to irrigate, he came from a land of heavy rainfall and short seasons. He provided stingily and trouble arose between Isaac and Mary Lillian whose strength was far overtaxed from bearing so many children. In the summer of 1904 he left his family, deeding only the house and 40 acres to his wife. He pursued his farming and stock raising on his farms near Fort Collins. His children visited him but he never offered them financial aid. His daughter Edna wrote: "Invested in every get rich quick scheme and lost all his investments." Edna closed his estate and therefore saw all his business papers.

He met Miss Carolyn Belle Younkin (b. March 27, 1866--d. April 11, 1941) in Cincinnati, Ohio, and married her in Chicago June 5, 1918, then moved to a home northwest of Fort Collins. (Carolyn was the daughter of Moses Younkin born in Pennsylvania who married Frances Carter of Ohio.) No children were born to this union as both were past middle age. Shaking palsy began in one hand before 1919 when he was 60 years old. His second wife was very faithful and carefully cared for him all the years he was an invalid. He became almost tyrannical in his demands in his last years. He died in Fort Collins Jan. 30, 1939 and is buried there. He was 80 years old. Carolyn's interment was at Agency, Iowa.

Notes by Mary Lillian (Elton) Harris say Isaac was the youngest child of 6 children, 2 boys and 4 girls. His father died when Isaac was 11 years of age and his mother died of heart disease when he was 9. He was apprenticed to a nearby blacksmith till he was 14. His brother George and wife who immigrated with him to Colorado are buried with their 2 children in the Harris lot of Grand View Cemetery in Fort Collins, Colorado, on Mountain Blvd. Isaac's sister, Mrs. Robert Kaulback (Rebecca Harris) who lived on Harmony Road, Truro, Nova Scotia, died from a fall downstairs when she was 89 years old, Jan. 28, 1941. In 1934 her son Roland lived next door to Rebecca and her daughter Mrs. Frank Sweet (Laura Kaulback who died June 20, 1940) lived in Truro. Mrs. Frank Sweet's daughter Mrs. Burton Huntley lived in 1941 on Harmony Road, R. R. 3, Truro, which is only on the edge of that city.

Isaac was a well built man about 5 ft. 11 in. tall, blue eyes, reddish brown hair, right-handed, did not drink liquor or smoke. Had kidney trouble when in his thirties. Loved to raise prize sheep--one year he won first prize in Chicago stockyards on best car lot of sheep.

I. B. bought a nice new automobile in Denver 65 miles away, had one hour or more driving lesson then drove to his farm home. Next morning he tried to take it out of the garage but went plunging through the rear wall with no injury whatsoever to the driver.

A history of Larimer County Colorado contains a picture of I. B. Harris. The Weld County Pioneer History has a brief sketch about I. B. Harris.

REAL NORTH PARK HUNTING

To the Express-Courier:

This hunting season reminds me of a hunting trip I made to North Park fifty years ago this month in company with Joe Montgomery and John Groove. There was no "game law" at that time in this state. You could kill all you wanted to if you were a good shot. We had bad luck on the first part of our trip and lost one horse because he got too much corn chop. We had to return about fifteen miles from Tie Siding and buy another horse. Then proceeded on our way to North Park again. There were very few fences in the park at that time and you could camp any place you wanted to. We camped near the Platte river about five miles from what is now called North Gate. We had pretty good luck hunting and while there had a severe snowstorm. Over two feet of snow fell next day or two. Sun came out and melted the snow then it turned very cold and froze a crust over it that we could walk on. We waited two weeks before the roads were passable so we could travel again. But when they got passable, they were not much like they are now.

Our methods of saving meat was very wasteful at that time. We skinned out the front quarters and head and threw them away and wrapped what we called the saddles or hindquarters in the hide. I killed thirty-nine antelope and the other two killed thirty-eight. We returned with a four-horse load of antelope. We sold them to J. C. Evans, C. R. Evan's father, who operated a meat market in a small building where the Patterson Drug Store is now. So ended our hunting trip in October, 1882.

III.

The Postmaster has handed me your card of April 20th, 1943, in it asking of descendants of Dr. John Harris and I beg to advise I am one of his great great grandsons, being the oldest son of Joseph Simpson Harris who was Sheriff of this County for over 40 yrs. He is the son of William H. Harris who was Sheriff for about 30 years and was the son of the first Sheriff, John Washington Harris who before being appointed Sheriff was Deputy Sheriff for the District of Pictou which was then part of the County of Halifax and John Washington Harris was a son of Dr. John Harris and was married to his own Cousin a grand daughter of Dr. John Harris's brothers Matthew. This makes me a descendant of both Dr. John and Matthew. I shall be glad to hear from you and to know who your husband is.

Yours truly,

William H. Harris Sheriff of Pictou, Nova Scotia.

Imogene wrote immediately to him and wrote again June 18, 1943

LETTERS FROM WILLIAM H. HARRIS, NOVA SCOTIA, PICTOU.

July 20, 1943

Your letters April 28 and June 18 came duly to hand and noted. I should have replied sooner but put it off being busy with other things. Now as far as I can see your husband and I are descendants of Dr. John Harris. I have looked up Thomas Little's (?) Book on the Colchester Counties and also Dr. Robert Stewards book "Col. George Stuart and wife Margaret Harris" and from Appendix XX in the Steesant (?) book I will copy the following:

Dr. John Harris' eighth child was Robert Harris born Nov. 21, 1783 and died Dec. 26, 1812. He married Hannah Hoar January 30, 1805 and inherited his father's homestead where he spent all his life. His children were

1. Ebenezer Hoar Harris, born 1806, died at Onslow Mountain March 1869. He married June 1829, Lavinia Lynds and left one son and two daughters.
2. Eliza Harris born Oct. 21, 1811 and married James Archibald December 31, 1833, resided at Clifton, Nova Scotia. Left 3 sons and 1 daughter.
3. Robert Harris, born July 14, 1813 and married in 1839 to his Cousin Maria Cock and had following children:

Walter born 1842, moved to the United States, George born 1844 moved to the United States and Mary born 1847, Robert born 1849, Isaac born 1852.

From the above and what you tell me I would judge your Husband's father Isaac Blair Harris was the son of Robert Harris, who was the son of Robert Harris the 8th child of Dr. John Harris.

Your letter says Isaac Blair Harris's father was George Harris. Now note, George, son of Robert was born in 1844 and I cannot think that at the age of 15, he would be father of Isaac Blair, born 1859. So I am inclined to think Isaac Blair was born 1852 a brother of George and son of Robert.

Note by Imogene---- Not Correct line but significant in that the name Cock appears which we know is also in George Elton Harris data.

Dear Mrs. Harris:

Yours of the 26th ult. duly to hand and noted, and I have looked up our former correspondence and note all you say; viz:-Your husband was born April 1st 1888, the son of Isaac Blair Harris, who was born May 5th, 1859 and moved to U. S. A. in 1880, and he was the son of George Harris and his wife Sarah Daniels and you are looking for information beyond that. Well, I have searched all the books I have on the subject and so far I am not able to say who George's father was? Why do you think he came from Colchester County? I note in one of your letters you give the place as Beaver Creek. I do not know any place of that name but if it should be Beaver River there is a place of that name down in Digby County and there are lots of families by the name of Harris in that County and the adjoining County of Annapolis, who are no relation of mine so far as I ever heard. But if George came from Colchester County or near Truro, there is a possibility that he was the son of Ebenezer Hoar Harris, the son of Robert Harris, the son of Dr. John. This Ebenezer was born in 1806 and died in 1869. He married Lavinia Lynds in June 1829 and Thomas Miller's Book says he left one son and two daughters but does not give their names. This unnamed son would be born in the 30s and could easily be the father of Isaac Blair born in 1859. All the old Colchester County families were connected by marriage and the names Isaac and Rebecca are quite common. Mrs. Ebenezer Hoar Harris' grandmother was Rebecca Blair. Also there was an Isaac Blair son of Daniel Blair and his wife Rebecca Freeman. He was born June 1st, 1830 and married to Rebecca Mclutt Feb. 18th, 1852. If you will allow me to make guess I will say that Ebenezer Hoar Harris' son was George and he likely married a sister of Isaac Blair. They would be about the same age, and that would account for the name. Now that is only deduction and I will have to get in touch with some of the breed in Colchester and see if I am right.

I am quite sure that he (George Harris) was not a descendant of either John Washington Harris or Thomas Harris as I have checked their families and can find no place for your George. I shall make further efforts to learn who he was and if I learn anything will let you know.

Trust your husband's cold is better, I have had one for some days now and find it very hard to get clear of.

Yours truly,

William H. Harris (Sheriff Pictou, Nova Scotia)

ARTHUR BLAIR HARRIS

Arthur Blair Harris was born on his father's forty acre farm, three miles west of Fort Collins, Colorado, October 28, 1886. He was the son of Isaac Blair Harris, born May 5, 1859, who married Mary Lillian Elton. Arthur was educated in the rural school near his parents home north of Wellington and later west of Fort Collins, Colorado in school district number ten. He finished two years in the preparatory department of the Colorado Agricultural College. He learned the trade of printing.

He married Miss Nannie Mae Christman on October 23, 1909 in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Nannie was an orphan and lived with her mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith.

Arthur and Nannie were the parents of Ida Lillian and Virgil Elton Harris.

Arthur established or organized and guided an interdenominational Sunday School in the new number ten school house which was 3/4 of a mile southwest of the old Harris home.

When Ida was about 2 yrs old Arthur moved his family with Rev. M. P. Hunt to Louisville, Kentucky. There he worked in a newspaper office till his wife became sick with tuberculosis of the lungs. The family returned to Colorado but it was of no benefit and Nannie died on September 2, 1917 and is buried at Fort Collins. Mr. Harris then lived on the farm west of Fort Collins and worked in town with the newspaper "Collins Courier." He did not serve in World War I as he had dependents.

On August 8, 1920 Arthur married Miss Bessie May Briggs (born at Red Oak, Iowa, on October 6, 1891) who was a schoolmate in the rural school west of Fort Collins, Colorado. Miss Briggs studied music, voice and piano in Spandau bei, Berlin, Germany. They were married August 8, 1920 in Fort Collins, Colorado, by Rev. Atkinson of Loveland.

Mr. Harris published the following newspapers:

Name of Paper	Daily, weekly	Place	Years
The Champion (Colorado
Prohibition Party Paper)	monthly	Fort Collins	2
Estes Park Trail	weekly	Estes Park, Colorado	10
Encampment Echo	weekly	Encampment, Wyoming	4½

He owned and managed the "Echo Theater" at Encampment, Wyoming, a moving picture theater.

Arthur and Bessie were the parents of three children, Grace, Maurice, and Frances.

A. B. Harris sold his home and business in Estes Park, Colorado, in 1931 and took up land in Wyoming to homestead near Encampment Dec. 26, 1930. He published a newspaper in Encampment and owned a movie theater - Echo Theater. About 1941 he finished proving up on his ranch and named it "Aspenglen Ranch".

Illness and a serious auto accident in April 1939 left Mr. Harris very nervous. Later palsy developed. A. B. never imbibed in intoxicating beverages. Bessie suffered with asthma. Both are industrious, honest, religious people. Both were perfect physically and Arthur was left-handed, 5 ft. 10 in. tall, slight of build, brown haired and blue eyes. First, last and always, A. B. Harris was a newspaper man.

A. B. Harris was a member of the following clubs or organizations:

First Baptist Church, Fort Collins, Colo.
 First Baptist Church, Loveland, Colo..
 22nd & Walnut Baptist
 West Broadway Baptist Church, Louisville, Ky.
 Baptist Church, Wellington, Colo.

 Supt. S. S. Wellington Congregational, later Wellington Baptist.
 Dist. No. 10 Union, at Fort Collins, Presbyterian, Encampment
 While secretary of Baracca Men's Class, 22nd & Walnut Baptist Church in 1914, he organized the six-point S. S. record system which has been largely adopted.

Mrs. A. B. Harris (Bessie) was a member of the following clubs or organizations:

Estes Park Music Club - President 1 yr.
 Presbyterian Ladies Aid and Missionary Society, Estes Park, Colo.
 E. P. Golf and Country Club

The Harris family joined the Presbyterian Church in Encampment, Wyo. Arthur served 2 terms as S. S. Supt. later taught Bible class.

Mrs. A. B. (Bessie) Harris taught high school at New Raymer, Colo., 1918 and 1919, Wellington, Colo., high school 1919 and 1920.

She united with Grand Island, Nebraska Baptist Church at the age of 9.

A. B. Harris owned property:

father's name was John Christman. He was a preacher for the Christian Church. Her mother's name was Ida. Nannie had a little brother who died when about 1½ yrs. of age. Her mother and father died of tuberculosis when in Missouri. The orphaned child then lived with her mother's parents, Mr. & Mrs. William Smith. These grandparents lived in the old No. 10 school house which has been converted into a residence west of Fort Collins, Colo. The # 10 old school was one eighth mile north and 1 mile west of the Harris farm home. Her grandfather Smith died just before she married Arthur Blair Harris on October 23, 1909. (Estelle says that Nannie and Arthur were married in the home of the grandparents) then the grandmother Smith lived in the school house home till Arthur moved to Kentucky. When they first married Arthur and Nannie bought a nice home on Oak Street in Fort Collins and from that house they moved to Wellington where a daughter Ida was born September 21, 1910. Grandmother Smith stayed with them awhile. Another move was made to Louisville, Kentucky, about 1912. A son Virgil was born August 9, 1913. Nannie became ill with tuberculosis, so the family moved to Colorado for her health to late. She died Sept. 2, 1917 and is buried at Fort Collins, Colo. Nannie was a natural musician, gifted piano player and loved happy quick tempo in music. She was quick and tidy about her work--was the best "Cherry facer" in that section known as a very quick berry picker. She had brown curly hair and was the same height of Arthur, 5ft-10 inches.

Nannie's grandmother Smith was dearly loved by the whole district. She taught for many years a Sunday School class of boy's and girl's in the intermediate group about age fourteen. She was cheerful, pleasant and had wavy hair. The Smith's had lived on a farm in Missouri, then went to Colorado where they owned two acres of land and grew berries to sell. Nannie had two Uncles by the name of Truby A. Smith and John V. Smith. John V. was born March 11, 1865 in Butler County, Penn and died Sept 12, 1950, in Colo., He married Lida Herndon at Platte City, Missouri on December 9, 1897. This couple came to Colo., in 1903. They had three children, Earnest, Nellie and Ralph. Grandmother William Smith lived the latter part of her life with her son John at Laporte, Colorado.

Dear Mrs. Brown:

Sorry my reply to your letter has been so long delayed. In setting forth what I know of the family history I will make no effort to keep them in order. First will be Charles F. Christman's family. C. F. Christman was a Captain in the Southern Army of the Civil War and where he was born is unknown to us. He had three sons, Morace, Chas & John who was Ida's sister's husband. A son was born to them named Chas who died when about 3 yrs of age. Nanny was born in Ridgeley, Mo., and came to Colorado in 1903. John, Ida and Charles, the son are buried at Ridgely Cemetery and as you know Nanny is buried at Fort Collins, Colo.

My Father, William Smith is a direct descendant of Jeremiah Smith who came to America from County Cork, Ireland in 1792, and located in Pa., and came to Mo. in 1877. He settled at Renich, Mo., removed to Ridgely and then to Colo., 1903

My Mother, Nancy A. Pugh was born at Chillicothe, Ohio. This is about all that I know of her early life. I must explain that if I were in Missouri, I could get the exact date of births and deaths of John, Ida and Charles from the headstone above their graves. My brother and sister-in-law came home to find his brother a very sick man in a Kansas City Hospital, therefore I did not get the facts as I hoped but will get them at some later date if you wish them. I believe that I have misspelled Nannie in the above part of my letter. Nannie is correct. If I have left out anything let me know and I will try to explain.

After reading the above it occurred to me that perhaps you would like the names of father's children. one or two died before I was born-- John V., Ida, Virtue J., William B., Truby A and Lillie. and I might add that I am the only one living. My father was born and reared at Lancaster Pa., then migrated to Mo.

I hope this finds all well and happy with you.

Sincerely,
Truby A. Smith

Bessie's cousin Edd Briggs in Chicago has written a family history.

BESSIE MAY BRIGGS

From Media Research Bureau in Washington, D. C.

Name Briggs belloved to be derived from residence of its owners at or near a bridge. Families for the most part landed gentry and yeomanry of Great Britain. First Briggs in America, Clement Briggs, who came to Plymouth, Mass., in 1621 (on the 2nd trip of the Mayflower). Character, industrious, keen minded and of high integrity, on the whole, members of the family have been particularly outstanding in the fields of education, theology and literature. Many served in the Revolutionary War.

Bessie May Briggs (b. Oct. 6, 1891) was the daughter of D. J. Briggs (Born 1858 in Alpha, Ill., and died July 24, 1938 at Ault, Colo.)

D. J. Briggs was the son of Daniel Briggs who married Peany Balkins of Scotch descent.

D. J. Briggs married Nettie Francis Cole born Oct. 27, 1860 at Portsmouth, Ohio. D. J. Briggs was an ordained Baptist minister who preached in Arnold, Taylor and Chapman, Nebraska, also Briggs Dale, Colo. Served as Baptist Colporter for short time in northeastern Colo. He was very slight and small of stature. Bessie had brothers Walter Grant and Fred Ellsworth.

Grandchildren:

His father was Daniel Briggs. Bessie's mother was born Oct. 27, 1860 at Portsmouth, Ohio. Her name - Nettie Francis Cole. Her father William Creighton Cole, his father Silas Cole. Grandma Cole was Rhoda Orm Pixley born in Ohio also of Scotch descent. Now mother told Bessie when Grandpa Cole died he told her brother the family came from Germany and were German aristocracy, but she can't believe they are German. He had no accent. The name Cole is as English as Old King Cole, and now she tells an entirely different story. "I expect my uncle, Dr. Cleve Cole, this summer, and if he does come, I shall ask him. Anyway Grandpa Cole fought in the Civil War. My children are eligible to Daughters of American Revolution and also to Daughters of Veterans. Greatgrandpa Amos Cole was Revolutionary soldier.

"Arthur can tell you about the Harris family. He claims the family is related to the Churchills. He was born near Fort Collins Oct. 28, 1886. I was born Oct. 6, 1891 at Red Oak, Ia.

"Grace Marie Harris, born July 10, 1921 at Fort Collins, Colo. Maurice Arthur Harris, born Oct. 13, 1923, Fort Collins, Colo. Frances Mae Harris, born Jan. 18, 1931, Fort Collins, Colo.

"Arthur and I were married Aug. 8, 1920.

"Yes, Grace is studying Journalism, and is reporter on the school paper. Most of her articles are on the front page. She has had one article in a Los Angeles daily and several in Pomona papers. She says she will never be happy unless she is in newspaper work.

"I asked Ida to write you. Don't know whether she ever will or not.

"I should have said the first Briggs they know anything about was William Atte Brigge, a Saxon nobleman living in County Norfolk, England, before the time of William the Conqueror.

"March 30, 1941." No use to wait longer for Arthur to read the data you sent to us.

"I had a letter from a man in Portsmouth, Ohio asking for Cole family data as he is writing genealogy since I started this. Got part of this information from him. Would seem to disprove any relation to Germany. Cole is one of earliest American families of noble blood. Great grandfather came from Sherborne, N. Y.

Bessie was less than 5'3" tall, straight brown hair, blue eyes, right handed, normal physically but never robust. Very musical.

Jane Elizabeth was born on November 20, 1915. Jane was educated in Ontario, California, and attended Chaffey College. She was employed by the Bank of America, in Ontario, before marriage. On August 7th, 1938 in Ontario she was married to Virgil Elton Harris.

Jane's father was Lewis P. Evans born in 1872 in Wales the son of David Evans who married a Miss Jane Evans (that was her maiden name).

Jane Elizabeth Evan's mother was Leah Davies born in Wales in 1880 the daughter of John and Jane Davies in Canarvan Shire in Canarvan Shire County--across the street from the castle where the Prince of Wales was born.

Jane's parents were married in Los Angeles, California on May 10, 1911.

Jane enjoyed robust health--I think she was the only child.

Grace Marie Harris was born July 10, 1921 in Fort Collins, Colorado. She was the daughter of Arthur Blair Harris and Bessie May Briggs. She was educated in the Estes Park grade school and graduated from the Encampment, Wyoming High School in May 1939. She attended Pomona Junior College, Pomona, California in 1941 and 1942 majoring in journalism. Married Mr. (Lieut.) Clark Gathercole of Army Air corps. Clark became a captain and flew 60 missions during World War II over Europe and Italy. His father was L. O. Gathercole, whose early home was in New Hampshire. Grace and Clark were parents of a son, Gary Leon, born July 7, 1942, who was injured at birth, always an invalid unable to walk or talk, and also a daughter born in the fall of 1947 in Temple City, Montana who was uninjured and normal.

Grace was small and slender with dark brown hair, big blue eyes and a happy smile. Normal mentally and physically.

Maurice was born October 13, 1923 in Fort Collins, Colorado, the son of Arthur Blair Harris and Bessie May Briggs. Educated in the grade school of Estes Park, Colorado. As a small boy he helped his father in the printing shop. His parents moved to a homestead in Wyoming near town of Encampment. Maurice learned the rancher's life in the summertime, there went to school through the winter months in Encampment. After school hours he assisted his father in publishing a weekly newspaper "Encampment Echo." Also he helped manage a moving picture theater owned by his father. In high school the pupils were given "I. Q." tests, intelligence tests and Maurice had a score of 114, just 2 below genius rating. He graduated from the high school of Encampment, Wyoming. He went into the army October 6, 1943, signing for 4 years of service--wanted to be an air cadet. Due to being short of stature and light weight he was not accepted as a cadet but trained in radio and radar school, never sent overseas in World War II against Germany and Japan. Most of the war period he worked with the United Airlines shops in Cheyenne, Wyoming, in the radio-electric department.

Dark brown hair, blue eyes, quiet, intense nature.

He was active in the Arcadia Heights, Missouri Baptist Assembly located in the Ozark Mountains, serving as Corresponding Secretary in 1915-1916. Sept. 22, 1915, he entered Newton Seminary in Newton Center, Mass., graduating in June 8, 1916 with A. B. D. Degree.

The Kenneth Church in Dunklin County, Missouri, called him as resident pastor Aug., 5, 1916. At that time Kenneth was a town of 3,622 population. On Nov., 16, that Church burned to the ground, yet he served there till March 17, 1918. During this pastorage he was married January 3, 1917, at Polo, Mo., to Miss Imogene Moffett, a daughter of James Thomas and Mary Viola (Bathgate) Moffett. The young couple bought a home October 15, 1917 from Mr. Dorsey Pool. On October 2, 1917, a son, James Elton was born. While in Kennett he was initiated in the Helm Chapter No. 117 of the Royal Arch Masons. He also acted as a Boy Scout master. He was not called by the Draft board in World War #1 because the board felt he could render greater service as a pastor. He sold his home in Kennett, Mo., and moved to Sioux Falls, South Dak., in April 1918 to become the Pastor of the largest Baptist Church in either of the Dakotas. He was on that field until Sept., 1921. Church membership 600. Sioux Falls in 1920 had a population of 25,176. They lived in two different rented houses, then the Church which was located on Spring Ave., at 8th St., bought a small parsonage when Sybil, the second child was 2 months old. He taught Bible in the College, was active in the Masonic Lodge and took degrees. He bought his first automobile, a Ford in 1918. Two children were born at this town. It was a satisfactory field, but greener pastures beckoned and on October 1, 1921 he was called to the Calvary Baptist Church, 9th & Harrison St. Kansas City, Mo., with the agreement that the old Calvary Baptist Church should merge its membership with Westport on 39th & Baltimore and come out to worship there and thus a total of 1,000 members would support the work. The family lived one year in an apartment while a nine room house was being built on 5704 McGee St., at a total cost of $12,000. Helen Louise was born just after they moved into their new home in May, 1923. His salary was $5,200.00 and the Church furnished their Pastor a new Oldsmobile. Au To.

RIGHTER

Trouble began when the rich Calvary members forgot their agreement and remained down town asking the young assistant minister to preach for them. Kansas City was then a town of 300,000 population. Rev. H. served on many State and local Baptist Committees and civil projects. The work was very strenuous and he resigned and sold his home in September 1936 and moved to a smaller Pastorate in Billings, Montana. This was the First Baptist Church on 3rd Avenue at North Division St. He continued his interest in the Masonic lodge, being a member of the Blue Lodge, Royal Arch and the Knight Templars. Here he belonged to the Kiwanis Serving Club. He and his wife made a trip to the Holy Land in the Summer of 1927 at the cost of $1,485.00 cash that they had saved. Billings had a membership of 300 and paid a salary of $3,500.00 with a free parsonage east of the Church. Billings was a town of 15,000.

He left this Church on November 4, 1928 after two years of satisfactory service to obtain a more complete rest in Estes Park, Colorado, where his brother Arthur owned a printing shop and published a newspaper. He was called to Helena Baptist Church in Montana in 1929 because it was a weak group of 100 members in the State Capitol town. This was the First Baptist Church on 8th Avenue on Warren St., The family lived in a house they rented on 78 West Lyndale Ave. He served that Church one year when the Baptist State Secretary died after an auto accident and the Baptist State Board elected Mr. Harris on August 5, 1930, to become State Secretary at salary of $3,500.00 and all expenses paid. He served in this capacity one year when a depression began and the State Board merged the secretarial work of Montana and Idaho upon the recommendation of Mr. Harris. Sorrow entered the home when a daughter Mary died after a brief illness in June 1931.

The Baptist Church of Needham, Great Plain Ave and Warren St., Mass., called Rev. Harris in September 1931 at a salary of $3,500.00 with parsonage located one-half block north of the Church at 101 Warren St., but later when houses were renumbered as 85 Warren St., and this was a most congenial membership except for a few cantankerous cranks. They stayed there 8 years and had a membership of 800 in a city of over 7,000 next to the City of Boston.

March 1947, Berkeley, California:

1847 Imogene Moffett was born February 24, 1898 on her grandfather Bathgate's farm of 855 acres near Richmond, Mo. Her mother was Mary Viola Bathgate (born January 7, 1875 on the Richmond farm) whose parents were Rachel Ann Sharpnack (born March 19, 1838 in Ritchie County, West Va.; married Oct. 26, 1865; died April 4, 1887) and Thomas Bathgate born in Westmoreland County, England, December 5, 1828, the son of Rachel Washington of Kendall, England and Thomas Bathgate of Edinburg Scotland (died 1850).

Imogene attended "Yankee Ridge" grade school north of Polo, Missouri, where her parents owned a 160 acre farm. She graduated from Polo High School in 1915 with highest honors and was awarded a scholarship to attend Marysville State Normal. Friends persuaded her to attend Warrensburg Teachers College. During the 1915-16 school year she taught a country school near Kingston, Missouri in Caldwell County.

B. D. On January 3, 1917, Imogene Moffett married George Elton Harris of Fort Collins Colorado. He graduated from the William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri and graduated from the Andover Newton Theological Seminary in Newton, Mass. He holds the degrees of A.B., B.D., and Th.B. He was ordained June 30, 1912 as a Baptist minister in the Fort Collins Colorado Baptist Church. Imogene was baptized as a member of the Polo, Missouri Baptist Church about the age of twelve.

After marriage the first home was in Kennett, Missouri, where they served the Baptist Church from August, 1916 till March, 1918. They sold the lot and house which had been bought in October, 1917 from Dorsey Pool and moved to Sioux Falls, South Dakota in April, 1918. They lived in rented homes till the Baptist Church bought a parsonage. They served this field-The "City Temple" (or First Baptist Church) of six hundred members till October, 1921. At that time City Temple was the largest Baptist church in either South or North Dakota. It was on Eight and Spring Streets. 1921

WAR - WORLD WAR II RAGED AT THIS TIME 1942-45. IT WAS A VERY STRENEOUS, HISTORIC AND CONFUSING TIME.

Calvary Baptist Church of Kansas City, Missouri, on Ninth and Harrison Streets, called Reverend Harris to become their minister in October, 1921, with the agreement that Calvary would merge its membership with Westport Baptist Church on Thirty-Ninth and Baltimore, thus making a total of over 1000 members to support the work. The salary was $5200 and the church furnished their pastor a new Oldsmobile automobile. Rev. and Mrs. Harris had a nine room home built on 5704 Mac Gee Street in Kansas City, Missouri and moved into that home in May, 1923.

Because of a near collapse and nervous breakdown by Rev. Harris, the home was sold in September 1926 and the family left the Kansas City Church to move to a small work in Billings, Montana. A rest was needed and Rev. and Mrs. Harris left their five small children with their grandparents and made a tour of Europe (England, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Greece) and the Holy Land of Palestine. They also went to Egypt to visit Cairo.

Better health led Rev. Harris to decide to move to the Capital City of Helena in Montana to serve the First Baptist Church there (on Eight and Warren). Work began in November 1929. Only one year was spent with the church because the state Baptist Board asked Rev. Harris to become the state secretary of Baptist work and travel to all the churches. Funds were low and when a nationwide depression began the State Board voted to merge the secretarial work with Idaho. Mrs. Harris did not like to be left alone to care for five children and advised a move to a church work. Accordingly the Baptist church of Needham, Mass., on Great Plain Avenue and Warren Street, called Rev. Harris in September, 1931 at a salary of $3500, and a free parsonage. A field of over seven hundred members was served for eight years. Their residence was 85 Warren Street. In October 1939 another move took them to Peru, Indiana. This church was on NEAR Fourth and Broadway with a membership of 990. The parsonage was on 80 East 5th Street. World War II began in December, 1941 (for U.S.A.) and two sons were in military service. They lived in Peru over five years.

The First Baptist Church of Berkeley, California on Dana and Haste extended a call to Rev. Harris on March 1, 1945. A salary of $4800 was paid and no parsonage. Membership was 965. War was raged till August 14, 1945. A ten room home was purchased on 2636 Warring Street in July 1945 at a cost of $10,500.

Imogene was a violinist, a good public speaker. She enjoyed painting in oils. In every church she was on the program committee for the Women's Society and often an officer in the associational work.

She had excellent health, right handed, grey eyes, 5'3" tall, dark brown hair, fair complexion, no defects. She was industrious and perserving, blood type B, R. H. positive and SHE collected family histories.

She made a collection of over two hundred toy automobile models all made before the year 1950.

William Byron Charles writes " an uncle of my mother was a drummer boy in Washington Army of the American Revolution: He wrote a song about "Credjo" the negro body guard of George Washington and composed other songs as well. Mother also spoke of a distant relationship of General George B. McClellan of Civil War history to the family.

An Uncle of my mother, Reuben Pulis, upon return of men following the Civil War accused one John woods of stealing a fine mare from him. Reubin promptly accused and he denied but was told he knew him by his walk and would kill him by sundown unless $300.00, the price of the mare was paid. Uncle Reubin received the payment. Mother heard the firing at Centralia when it was attached by bushwackers in Civil war Period. She held her grandfather , a small man, somewhat enfeebled then, to prevent him asking a guard at their cross corner why he was there: He was fearless and would probably have been shot.

Letter from Francis M. Miller.

I entered the Navy in July of 1942 as Slc (seaman first class) and reported to the Naval Reserve Air Training Base at Lambert Field, St. Louis, Mo.

There I worked in a distributing office until May 1944. At that time I had gone as far as I could in the enlistment ranks with out sea duty which was SK2c (Storekeeper Second Class) and which rate I held until discharged. While at Lambeth Field I applied for a Commission, having all the necessary requirements and it was approved locally, but rejected in Washington because being underweight, I could not meet the medical requirments and it was too great to be waived.

When they sailed into New York Harbor they passed the ship they would have liked to come on. It was quarantined, there being sickness aboard. There was no sickness on ship we were on so we disembarked immediately. While we were yet in New York a storm came on and wrecked this quarantined ship. All on board being lost. My father and mother had acquaintances on this wrecked ship. We left New York on a freight train and traveled in a box car with some people bound for Maximo. The trip was very slow. The train stopping frequently for wood to fire the locomotive. When we arrived at Maximo we were met by the Krabills. We stayed at their house a few days, then my father bought the farm that belongs to Charles Chenot. Father and the boys often helped the neighbors for fifty cents a day. I will be eighty-seven years old the 23 of October. I send my love and best wishes to all the relatives.

Adele Des Voignes

Born Oct. 26, 1842

History of the family of George Frederic and Mary Catherine Chenot. George F. Chenot, Sr. was born in Etupes, France, in March 1813, and died at the home of his daughter January 24, 1892. His wife, whose name was Mary Catherine Guillemot was born in Allenjoy, France, in 1815, and died in their little home north of Louisville on November 14, 1879. They were married in 1837. To them were born two sons and three daughters: George A., Peter E., Adele, Emile and Mary Catherine.

Grandfather Chenot was a man of influence in the town in which he lived. His business was mostly hauling and many a long haul over the stone piked roads of France were made--always with one-horse wagons, one following the other. To go up a big hill they doubled up and made it a two-horse team. Sometimes a brother of grandfather made the trip, taking one or the other of the boys to drive one rig. On one of those trips the boy Emile, got chilled and contracted a fever which left him in poor health. Many trips were made to a doctor to restore his health but in vain, and they were told that a trip to America would probably restore him. So the journey was begun in March, 1854. Many were the preparations made for this journey, which took about one month of variable winds and storms and calms before they reached their haven, New York. They remained in New York for some time then set out for the West, as Ohio, Indiana and Illinois were then known. In France the Chenot family were very good friends of the family of Mr. Krabill whose family emigrated to America a few years before grandfather's. Mr. Krabill met the family at Maximo, hauled them to his home where they stayed for some time and helped them choose a home. They finally bought two small farms adjoining and moved the house from the east farm to make up their home near where we meet today. Our ancestors were people of strict integrity and honesty. They were known far and wide and always trusted. In most of their dealings their word was all that was required. No note was necessary. If a neighbor needed help it was cheerfully given. In France, especially, the poorer people of the town looked upon them as their benefactors, came to them with their troubles or for assistance. Never need we be ashamed of the blood which courses in our veins, rather should we emulate them in their good common sense and clear clean thinking. In the country from which they came there was about one doctor for every five or six counties. They learned how to combat diseases and even perform minor operations and were able to give medical advice to many of their neighbors.

And now we have met partly to revere their memory as well as to renew our association and recall olden days. As Kipling wrote to the English nation, "Great God of Hosts, be with us yet. Lest we forget."

Samuel D. Chenot

The Chenot Family--- Very little is known here of its origin. It is thought by some that it is of Roman origin because traces of them have been found along the line of Caesar's Invasion from his camp at Besancon to England. It is known that members of this family were in England many years ago, as the Encyclopedia makes mention of them as discoverers of a method of making iron. From about the time of the reformation they have been most numerous in eastern France and along the Rhine. There still stands a Castle Chenot, no doubt, being the home of some of them. It is known that our own ancestors returned from Switzerland in the eighteenth century, about 1712, having been driven there from France by the Dragonades. From time to time some of these families emigrated to America and we find them in many parts of the country, mostly in Illinois and Michigan, Minnesota, Louisiana and Florida. Nearly every large city has the name in the directory.

G

Our own ancestors, George Frederic Chenot and Susanne Catherine Buillemot. Grandfather was born at Etupes, France, March 13, 1815. Grandmother was born at Allenjoie, 1815. They were married June 13, 1837. Their children were: George Adolph, 1837; Peter Emilo, 1839; Catherine Amelia, 1840, never married- died 1884; Adelle, 1842; Marie Catherine, 1844.

In 1854 they decided to emigrate to America, and after correspondence with acquaintances, who had come to this country, set out and after a long voyage they arrived in New York in March, and soon after arrived at the home of their friends in Stark County and settled on a farm north of Louisville. In due time the sons and daughters married, except Catherine Amelia, who was a invalid and died in 1884. Grandmother died in 1879 and grandfather in 1894. From this time on the history is well known to the older members of the family now living.

Charles F. Chenot
Louisville, Ohio

Edna Mary Elizabeth Chenot born about 1898 was daughter of George F. Chenot (he the son of ----- Chenot) who married Miss----- Culler. Edna Chenot's mother's father changed his name, Culler not their original name. As a youth he ran away from an unbearable apprenticeship, so changed his name to avoid detection.

Marguerite Irene Harris----- WRITTEN BY HER IN MAY 1945
Marguerite Irene Harris was born January 17, 1890 at the home of her grandfather, Rev. E. N. Elton on Riverside Drive at Fort Collins, Colo. She had dark brown hair and blue eyes and was right handed. Never robust in health, she had ambition and determination and finished her high school education in spite of her physician's advice to give it up. She graduated with honors from the Fort Collins High School in 1911 and taught school one term but was forced to discontinue teaching on account of poor health.

She was married in Fort Collins, Colo., on June 12, 1914 to Ishmael H. Farmer, the son of a well-to-do farmer of Wellington, Colo. In 1922 the family moved to California hoping to benefit Marguerite's health, as she had developed heart trouble. She was the mother of three children. A son, Wilfred Ishmael Farmer was born at Wellington, Colo., Nov. 10, 1915. He was educated in the schools of Calif., having graduated from the Redondo Beach High School, Chaffee Junior College, at Ontario, Calif. and U. C. L. A. at Westwood with high scholastic honors. In 1941 Nov. 4, he entered service and was trained at Scott Field, about 8 miles from St. Louis, Missouri. On November 10, 1942, he was married to Lillian Piper of Clinton, Ky. A daughter, Wilma Janet Farmer was born Sept. 3, 1917 at Fort Collins, Colo. She was graduated from the Hermosa Beach grammar school and after one year at high school, remained at home to take charge of the home as her mother's health had failed. She was married to Hilton Stewart Anderson on April 25, 1937. Her husband worked with the movies as a "light man." Donna Jeanette was born Aug. 17, 1938; Joyce Diane was born Sept. 20, 1940.

Robert Bruce Farmer was born Dec. 29, 1913 at Fort Collins, Colo. He attended school at Hermosa Beach and High School at Redondo Beach and was graduated from the Chaffee High School at Ontario, Calif. He was then employed by the National Supply Co. at Avenal, Calif. until he enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard in March, 1941. He received his training at Alameda, Calif. and at Fort Trumbull, New London Connecticut. He was radio-man on the Coast Guard Cutter Travis until March, 1944 when he was transferred to the Redbud. Howard Leslie Bills----- Howard Leslie bills was born March 17, 1894 near Eaton, Colorado. He was the son of Isaac Benton Bills, a prosperous farmer who came to Colorado from West Virginia, town of St. Mary's. His father was born on Sept. 2, 1860 and was married at Greeley, Colorado on April 26, 1893, to Nora M. White (born Oct. 16, 1866, of St. Mary's, West Virginia).

Howard had two brothers, Ellis Stanley Bills and Carl Benton Bills. He was educated in the Eaton, Colorado High School and attended the Colorado School of Agriculture in Fort Collins, Colorado. After marriage to Miss Edna Harris he lived on a farm near Eaton, Colorado, consisting of 160 acres. His social life centered in the A. F. and A. M. (Ancient Free and Accepted Masons) number 109 of Eaton following the footsteps of his father who was a Mason. He did not like HOME churches or their ministers. Howard's father, Isaac, owned a large farm in the town of Eaton and two farms near Eaton. The two sons inherited that property when Isaac died on Jan. 18, 1948. Howard was proud of his skill as a farmer-- he used the best of machinery. His brother, Carl, was born Sept. 17, 1908. Carl studied to be a veterinary doctor. He graduated from the Colorado Agriculture College in 1931. Carl married Elizabeth Tower Bates from New York City on Sept. 5, 1935. In 1947-48 they lived on 37-26th street in Merced, California and had one daughter, Elizabeth Ann Bills, born May 26, 1940.

Howard's brother, Ellis Stanley Bills was born October 7, 1898. He studied to become a doctor but was killed in an automobile accident, a crash, on Jan. 29, 1932.

Lettie Estelle Harris was born Feb. 26, 1895 on her father's 120 acre farm three miles west of Fort Collins, Colorado. She was the daughter of Isaac Blair Harris--AND Mary Lillian Elton. ELTON.

1914 AND WAS EMPLOYED.

She was educated in the rural school, District #10, near their home. Then attended the Fort Collins High School one year. After that she transferred to the Colo. State School of Agriculture and graduated in the spring of 1914. She became a member of the Fort Collins Baptist Church at the age of eleven. After graduating from Colorado State School of Agriculture, Estelle moved to Liberty, Missouri where the rest of the family had moved because the brother Elton and Carrol were attending William Jewell College in Liberty. She began working as a telephone operator for the Bell Telephone Co., and bought stock in that company. She helped support her mother, younger sisters and brothers.

In 1917 Estelle and mother took Carrol to a lower climate, Gulfport, Mississippi for his heart ailment. While in Mississippi, she worked for the telephone Co. there. She was made Chief Operator and had charge of the telephone offices at Higgins, McHenry, and Pass Christian Mississippi. Also the exchange at the naval station near Gulfport. This office she held during world war I till the death of her brother Carrol on January, 14, 1920. The telephone company transferred her to Sioux Fall, South Dakota and there she was appointed Toll Instructress. She lived with her brother Elton and family.

In June of 1920, she returned to Colorado because of her mother's poor health. In August, 1920, she went as Manager of the telephone office at Johnstown, Colorado. This position she held until she was married on June 11, 1922 to Thomas Burl Brown of Johnstown, Colorado--the wedding ceremony was solemnized at the Harris farm home west of Fort Collins, Colorado, by Rev. Atkinson of Loveland Colorado.

After marriage she lived in Johnstown, Colorado where Mr. Brown owned and operated a trucking and transfer business. Mr. Brown also owned a 200 acre dry land farm 12 miles east of Hunn, Colo. and a five room house and lot in Johnstown. Later they sold their home and business to move to her mother's 27 acre farm three miles west of Fort Collins. They paid $4,200.00 to the Building and Loan Company who held a $6,000.00 mortgage on the Mary Lillian Harris farm of 27 acres. But the depression of 1930 caused them to lose it all. April 1933, they stored their furniture and drove their automobile to North Carolina to stay with relatives awhile. Soon rented a farm there. In January 1937 they bought a 24 acre farm near Clyde, North Carolina and paid out on it in the fall of 1939. They moved Jan. 9, 1921 to a farm near Brevard, North Carolina, R. #1. They left there to move in August 1942 to a farm 5 miles west and north of Asheville, N. C. R3#4.

Estelle was a cheerful, industrious and thrifty person. She enjoyed church life and usually taught a Sunday School class and was active in the women's church organizations. When she lived near Asheville she was employed in the Biltmore Industries which made handwoven homespun woolen cloth. Estelle had blue eyes, light brown hair, was about 5 ft. and 6 inches tall and right handed. She had no physical defects. Estelle has a saucer and a cup made without a handle--she thinks it was Albert Baxter's cup.

so in April Mother and Estelle took him to Gulf Port, Miss., where his improvement was slow but he did recover and went to work for the Gulf Port & Ship Island R. R. in August as bookkeeper. He was transferred to Hattiesburg, Miss in October so he stayed with them only one more month. November 1918 he went to work for the Bank of Gulf Port and in a few months was appointed Teller. Mr McNair The President said, Carroll Edwin was the youngest and most efficient Teller ever to work in his Bank.

December 1, 1919 while on his way to the Bank he had a sudden heart attack and was taken in by Mr. & Mrs Geylord and put to bed. They called Estelle at the telephone office. She rushed to his side and called Dr. Parker, His own Doctor being sick in bed Dr. Parker and Estelle took him to the Kings Daughter Hospital where he received the best of care but no improvement. On January 1920 they operated on him, removing his bad tonsils and making a vaccine of them and vaccinated him with it. (trying to fight poison with poison) but it was too late for with leakage of the heart and enlarged heart and rheumatism- it was too much. He passed away at 4:45 A. M Jan 14 1920 with his faithful sister at his side. Mother Harris had been with him all day. Mother, Estelle and Verda took the body back to Ft. Collins, Colo., where it was buried in Grandview, Cemetery. While Carroll was delivering the K. C. Star, Prof. Tulti wife nick-named him "Sunshine" and he was affectionally called by that name by most the fellows on old Jewell Hill.

Howard Bills borrowed $500.00 from Eaton Bank, Colorado to send them to Gulf Port. He and Edna kept her brother Elverd and Sister Verda 1 1/2 years.

Lillian Edwina Harris.

Lillian Edwina Harris was born on her father's 40 acre farm three miles west of Fort Collins, Colorado, on April 14, 1901. She was the daughter of Isaac Blair Harris who married Mary Lillian Elton. Educated in the rural school, near her home and three years in a high school in Liberty, Missouri, while living there with her mother. She became a christian in early life and continued active all her life in Baptist churches. On May 31, 1918 in Fort Collins she married a Mr. Geter P. Farmer of Wellington, Colorado. Two sisters married two brothers Lillian's older sister married Ishmael Farmer. Lillian was the mother of five children. Overwork when never too robust in health caused exhaustion and frequent respiratory troubles. The family moved residence often and the family income was incertain. I envied Lillian the ability to have such charming fat infants. Lillian was normal physically and mentally, right handed, dark brown hair, beautiful big blue smiling eyes. She was about five ft. and seven inches tall, slender.

The most permanent homes were on 1665 Rosendry St. Denver, Colorado and 2622 Hudson St. Denver, Colorado--also 1744 Spruce Street in Denver, Colorado. 1943--When the children were old enough to be in school Lillian taught in the Baptist Sunday School. She was church clerk of the Montclair Baptist Church on 16th and Syracuse Streets in Denver, Colo. She taught a young mothers Sunday School class in that church. She was elected president of the Women's Missionary Society of that church. In April 1941 Lillian was elected Secretary of the Colorado Baptist Committee. After her children were in high school Lillian obtained work in offices in Denver.

Robert Elverd Harris was born on his father's 140 acre farm 3 miles west of Fort Collins Colo. Nov. 26, 1902, the son of Isaac Blair. Harris married Mary Lillian Elton. He was normal physically and mentally, was honest, industrious, and religious. His father said that Elverd looked like his Uncle George of short broad physique and dark brown very curly hair. Elverd's hair was brown and curly, his eyes blue, he was right handed, he was witty, had a fine personality. Elverd was educated in Fort Collins, Colorado and Liberty, Missouri. He helped his eldest brother, Arthur, print a small newspaper "Estes Park Trail" for some time, then by means of a money loan from his brother Elton, he attended the Sioux Falls Baptist College in South Dakota. He graduated from that college with honors in June 1925. In Dakota he met a young school teacher, of Lake Preston, Miss Ruth Lewis and married her on Aug. 15, 1928. He became superintendent of schools in Spearfish, South Dakota. After that he worked two years in the United States Patent Office, Washington D. C. In 1929, Calif. Fruit Grower's Exchange or the Sundist Orange Growers Co. employed him as a Patent attorney. He made his home in Ontario, Calif. and about 1936 bought a home there on 122 East J. St. He often traveled on business matters to Washington D. C. Later a large home was purchased on 225 West E. St. in Ontario. Elverd was very active in the local Masonic Lodge, became a past Master and was for several years an officer in the Grand Lodge of California. Another Organization claimed his interest the Ontario Rotary Club of which he was Secretary in 1941-42 and President in 1945-46. He wrote the following notes about his life to be printed in the Ontario Rotary paper, "The Spinning Wheel" --Vol 12--number 35 --April 27, 1949-- R. E. "Bob" Harris.

Elverd was baptized on Dec. 12, 1920 in the Sioux Falls, South Dakota First Baptist Church but both he and wife Ruth united with the Congregational Church in Ontario. They both sang in that church choir for many years.

R. E. "Bob" Harris--Past President 1945-46--- COPY

I was born on the day before Thanksgiving, the eighth of nine children, on a farm near Fort Collins, Colorado. Events have taken the boy out of the farm, but not theetc.

In seven hard, but interesting years in the plains, the Bad Lands and the beautiful Black Hills of South Dakota, I acquired a finish to high school, a college degree with major emphasis in languages and the classics by added summer schools a full undergraduate foundation in chemistry, and a wonderful wife, Ruth.

Two years in the U. S. Patent Office gave me a masters degree in organic chemistry, from George Washington University, and a sufficient foundation in Patent Office practice to permit my being registered subsequently as a Patent Attorney.

In 1929, California Fruit Growers Exchange brought me to Ontario where I continue, in charge of all the patent and trade-mark work of that organization. We, ourselves couldn't have chosen a town and people more to our liking. Here our four children, Mary Ann, Robert, Paul and John were born in 1930, '33, '36, and '39. Here we have found warm and lasting friendships and have grown to be, in our small way, a part of the community life. I am deeply proud of being a Rotarian. It can and does absorb all the time and effort one can find to give it. I have found it richly rewarding.

I have a lot of trouble with the people (including Ye Editor hereof) who think that, whereas I am a Registered Patent Attorney, I am ipso facto a lawyer; which I am not. Bob and Ruth never owned a radio till 1941 and it was in their new car! Elverd treasured his mother's old pedal organ (pump organ with bellows in it.) It was given to her by Mrs. Thornton of England who lived 1 mile north of Isaac Blair's Harris farm near Fort Collins, Colo. Robert Elverd and Ruth were the parents of four children. Mary Ann Harris, born Aug. 27, 1930 in Ontario, Calif. She graduated from Chaffey Union high school on June 11, 1948 in Ontario. She was "Honored Queen" of Job's Daughters in June, 1948. Edgar Burl Brown born on Jan., 16, 1928 was adopted by Estelle Brown when a few days old. He was born in the Larimer Hospital. His parents were married and his real father's name was Brown. His father was a traveling salesman and left his wife when he learned that she would have a baby. So the young wife had to earn her living and felt she could not care for the baby. The wife's mother could not care for the baby therefore a decision was made to place the child on the list of names for adoption. Estelle had long hoped and prayed for a child of her own, in despair she adopted this baby when it was a few days old. Estelle never saw the parents of the child and she asked all the relatives never to tell the boy that he was an adopted son. I do not believe Edgar Burl knew of his adoption even when he was married. ~~Latter~~ Estelle did have a son of her very own, she was a loving mother to both children.
